

Program and project management

Our professionals offer experience in managing large and business critical programs in a structured fashion throughout the delivery lifecycle. Program management refers to the administration of a group of projects, linked through dependencies and potential benefits. While project management refers to oversight of a temporary endeavor to create a unique product or service. Program and project management supports clients by defining processes that mitigate risks and provide resources to support general project management activities. Our program and project management support and frameworks will help define and drive change delivery through a robust, controlled framework.

A typical delivery lifecycle can include the following:

Inception

Initiation

Scoping and planning

Executive, monitor and control

Closure and transition
