

Elevate the grant experience

KPMG Powered Grants enabled by Salesforce

KPMG Powered Grants offers a suite of services that take the complexity out of the grants management landscape. Our solutions advise you on the best course of action, manage the end to end grants process, embed quality assurance and enable you to drive efficiency and transparency in your current grants lifecycle.

THE CHALLENGE

- These are unprecedented times as we look to deliver simpler, consistent and streamlined grants to communities globally
- A growing urgency exists to deliver well designed grants programs at pace whilst increasing outcome transparency and cost effectiveness
- A new approach across the grants management lifecycle is needed

TODAY

High delivery costs with unclear outcomes and limited scalability due to inefficiencies across the grants lifecycle.

- KPMG has invested significantly in creating a new approach to grants management delivery
- KPMG Powered Grants is underpinned by a team of experts, leading practice processes, advanced data platforms and delivery centres
- Cost savings and enhanced grant outcomes through uplifted execution speed and continuous improvement to operational efficiency, scalability and responsiveness

TOMORROW

A scalable capability which maximises cost efficiency, increases transparency of outcomes and delivers an excellent citizen experience.

THE SOLUTION

The KPMG Powered Grants platform on Salesforce, delivers a seamless digital experience fit for today's demanding citizen expectations. The solution enables grant programs to deliver funding to market faster and streamlines the end-to-end process throughout the grant application and administration lifecycle. Quality assurance can be embedded throughout the grant management lifecycle to enable confidence and evidence-based decision-making in administration.

Provides a fully digital grant application experience, reducing the need for paper based processing, improving the early use of eligibility criteria, and increasing the speed of accurate submission.

Enables an efficient digital back office administration function, managing workload, organising application processing queues, reporting on processing metrics, and ensuring proper controls and alerts.

Provides a secure and reliable service platform, with data sovereignty and fully redundant backup in Australian cloud infrastructure. Scalable integration with other platforms to enable end-to-end processes without manual interventions.

KPMG Powered Grants enabled by Salesforce is a scalable solution that maximises efficiency, increases the transparency of outcomes, and delivers a superior digital citizen experience – representing a single solution for all grant management needs.

KPMG Powered Grants was designed as a pre-built accelerator that can aid in the development of grants management solutions rapidly. The solution provides customers with the no code/low code building blocks for grants management. It helps to mitigate the most commonly occurring challenges during grants management development and implementation.

KPMG Powered Grants includes developer tools comprising frameworks, templates, customisable user interfaces and more. The components of KPMG's Powered Grants solution enable you to quickly implement, run and scale a digital grants offering to the community.
