

Reconciliation and Social Impact Services

KPMG Indigenous Services

A Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP) provides a practical way to drive social impact through your organisation's Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) strategy.

How we can help:

As a leader in the reconciliation movement, KPMG is uniquely placed to support your organisation through all stages of its reconciliation journey. Whether you are scoping, implementing, or embedding reconciliation into your organisation, we can help you to:

- Understand your RAP ambition and provide advice so you can develop a meaningful RAP.
- Develop a deep understanding of your existing Indigenous relationships and/or initiatives.
- Initiate mutual beneficial engagement with key Indigenous stakeholders and potential RAP partners.
- Develop your RAP to reflect the aspirations of your organisation's ESG, sustainability and/or human rights agendas.

Our Unique Approach

We understand the critical importance of cultural context and have developed bespoke communication and consultation protocols to work effectively and respectfully towards achieving mutually beneficial outcomes with our clients.

We have a deep understanding of the challenges and opportunities that exist for the Indigenous sector, and we lead engagements with a culturally authorised team. Further, our approach is based on the principles of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

Our services:

- RAP Accelerator Workshop - a full day workshop designed to provide you with the knowledge and tools needed to develop your RAP. The workshop includes modules to support you to develop a blueprint for your RAP, which is required for initial endorsement from Reconciliation Australia.
- RAP Advisory – a full service offering where we work with your organisation to support your development of a RAP that meets your strategic ambitions and is informed by Indigenous voices.
- Bespoke Reconciliation Services – best practice advice on reconciliation initiatives that meet your specific business needs. For example - Indigenous Employment Strategy, Indigenous Procurement Strategy; Indigenous JV development.

Why choose KPMG Indigenous Services

As a market leader in Reconciliation and three-time Elevate RAP holder, we understand how to display a demonstrated commitment to reconciliation and develop meaningful outcomes that meet key stakeholder expectations.

We adopt a rights-based approach and understand the critical importance of cultural context. We have developed Indigenous consultation principles to work respectfully and effectively to achieve shared value outcomes. Our approach is based on the principles of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

We have a trusted and deep network with Indigenous stakeholders across Australia. We provide access to this network to our clients so they can build their own relationships with Indigenous partners to achieve their reconciliation vision.

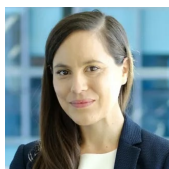

We have deep experience in developing bespoke best practice RAPs that meet broader strategic commitments. We have worked alongside clients across industries and helped them embed their RAP commitments into BAU operations and ensure performance is measured. We can help you make sure your RAP is aligned to your broader ambitions in sustainability and social impact.
