

Bahrain

On 1 July 2021, in a historic agreement, 130 countries approved a statement providing a framework for reform of international tax rules. These countries (including Bahrain) are members of the OECD/G20 Inclusive Framework on BEPS, comprising 139 countries. The statement sets forth the key terms for an agreement of a two-pillar approach to reforms and calls for a comprehensive agreement by the October 2021 G20 Finance Ministers and Central Bank Governors meeting, with changes coming into effect in 2023.

Pillar One of the agreement is a significant departure from the standard international tax rules of the last 100 years, which largely require a physical presence in a country before that country has a right to tax.

Pillar Two secures an unprecedented agreement on a global minimum level of taxation which has the effect of stipulating a floor for tax competition amongst jurisdictions. Will this act as a catalyst for the introduction of corporate tax in Bahrain?
