Insights – 2022

The summary below outlines the broader themes emerging from the results analysis provided in this report for the year-ended 31 December 2022.

- Profitability saw another double-digit increase of 25.3 percent, driven particularly by a growth in loan books, increased interest margins, lower loan impairment and a continued focus on cost efficiencies
- Asset growth remained robust as banks increased their asset base by 9.9 percent, which was driven by lending to high quality customers
- Net interest margins increased by 0.2 percent, as a result of the rising interest rate environment, which helped drive profit growth
- The overall NPL ratio for the GCC banking sector decreased by 0.1 percent and now stands at 3.8 percent, reflecting the conservative approach to credit risk management
- Net impairment charges on loans and advances decreased by an average of 11.2 percent, with the drop observed mainly in stage 2 and 3 portfolios, indicating an improvement in credit quality
- ROA (1.3 percent in 2022) increased by 0.2 percent compared with the prior year, owing to the rise in profitability being higher than the asset growth
- Cost-to-income ratios reduced compared to 2021 (40.9 percent to 39.9 percent), reflecting the continued focus on cost reductions and operating efficiency initiatives
- The average coverage ratio for stage 2 and 3 loans increased by 0.4 percent and 1.7 percent respectively from the prior year, demonstrating how banks continue to be cautious in relation to their approach to provisioning
- Share prices overall remained stable year on year with a marginal increase of 0.7 percent compared with the previous year

- ROE (10.6 percent in 2022) decreased by 1.2 percent compared with the prior year as equity growth outpaced profitability increases
- Stage 1 net provision charge increased six-fold compared to 2021 as banks continue to provide adequate coverage for their performing loan book
- Dividend payout ratio decreased by 0.8 percent as banks conserve their earnings to strengthen their equity positions and help fuel future growth
- The average sector capital adequacy ratio decreased year on year by 0.3 percent and currently stands at 18.6 percent, however this remains well above minimum regulatory requirements across all GCC countries

Outlook – 2023

The summary below highlights the outlook for the banking sector in the region

Effective NPL management

With a cautious and selective approach to lending, we expect NPLs to remain at the current levels in 2023. Banks will look to closely manage their non-performing portfolios through sales, write offs, and proactive credit risk management

Strong regulatory oversight

Regulators will continue to enhance their oversight on the banking sector with enhanced reporting driven by global developments and the increased use of technology. Implementation of Basel IV regulations, increased focus on Anti Money Laundering (AML), Financial Crime, and Know Your Customer (eKYC), Cybersecurity, Open Banking, Tax, and Digital Currencies, amongst other areas, will be the focus in the year ahead

Cautious and selective lending

Going forward, banks will continue to maintain a cautious and selective approach to lending and will focus on government, high end customers, and collateralized lending to continue a sustained growth in the lending portfolio. This will enable banks to manage their provision coverage levels, while providing a stable return on capital

Pressure on NIMs

With the rising global interest rate environment, pressure will be created on funding costs and in turn on NIMs. We do not expect the full impact of the rate hikes to be passed on to customers, although repricing will help somewhat mitigate the impact

Cautious optimism

With the Covid-19 pandemic behind us, we expect that the GCC banking sector will continue to build on its strong foundation supported by a robust economic environment. While banks have emerged resilient in the face of economic challenges, accelerated innovation plans, technology focus and continued government investment will see further growth going forward

Cost and operational efficiencies

We expect cost and operational efficiencies to remain high on the management agenda as banks are likely to look at more innovative ways in which costs can be managed through collaboration with Fintech players and the adoption of emerging technologies such as artificial intelligence

Focus on ESG

Environmental, Social and Governance matters will continue to gain further prominence in 2023. Stock exchanges and Central banks are likely to drive this agenda as they look to mandate some form of common ESG reporting across the banking sector. ESG will not only be a focus for banks but for all stakeholders including investors and customers

Digital transformation

We expect banks to continue to aggressively pursue technological transformation and further explore the use of digital platforms to make banking more accessible to customers, while implementing robotics, artificial intelligence and other innovative ways to efficiently manage customers' banking needs

Further consolidation

GCC Banks will continue to pursue consolidation as they seek to remain competitive and relevant in the marketplace. In 2022, several GCC countries experienced mergers, both in the conventional and Islamic banking sector thus creating larger, stronger and more resilient financial institutions. We expect that this consolidation drive will continue in 2023 across the region

KPIs defined

KPI definitions and assumptions

Given the varied accounting frameworks and reporting styles across Islamic and conventional banks in the GCC, the following parameters have been used in calculations for consistency in our analysis:

- Total assets are as reported in the published annual financial statements
- Net profit is the net profit for the year attributable to the shareholders of the banks
- Capital adequacy ratio (CAR) is the ratio of total capital (the sum of Tier 1 and 2 capital) to total risk weighted assets (RWAs). For Islamic banks, URIA balances are included in total capital, as a result the ratios for Islamic and conventional banks are not entirely comparable
- Return on equity (ROE) is the ratio of net profit attributable to the shareholders of the banks to average equity, where average equity is calculated by halving the sum of total equity attributable to the banks' shareholders (excluding additional Tier 1 (AT1) capital) for the current and previous year ends. The coupon on any AT1 instrument is excluded from the net profit
- Return on asset (ROA) is the ratio of net profit attributable to the shareholders of the banks to average assets, where average assets are calculated by halving the sum of total assets for the current and previous year ends
- Net provision charge on loans is the sum of the expected credit loss (ECL) on stage 1 and 2 and impairment charge on stage 3 loans (Including POCI) for year-ended 31 December 2021 and 31 December 2022
- Coverage ratios on loans – by stage is the provisions (including interest in suspense) at 31 December 2021 and 31 December 2022 for the respective stages (Including POCI in stage 3) as a percentage of the relevant exposure
- Total loans subject to ECL is the stage-wise exposure of loans subject to ECL (before the impact of ECL) on 31 December 2022 as a percentage of total exposure subject to ECL
- Cost-to-income ratio (CIR) is the ratio of total operating expenses (excluding impairment charges) to total operating income (where interest/financing income or expenses, fee commission income or expenses and URIA costs have all been netted)
- Dividend payout ratio (DPR) is the ratio of Earning Per share to Dividend (recommended) per share
- Net interest margin (NIM) is the ratio of net interest income (Net of interest income and expenses) to the average earning assets which excludes equity securities and current accounts. For Islamic banks, interest and profit have been used interchangeably¹

We have provided a relative analysis of country and banks performances based on their reported numbers using a common KPI definition. Users should exercise caution in deriving their conclusions or in making business decisions solely based on this analysis. Users should also make themselves aware of local regulatory measures and perform further detailed analysis on each banks and each jurisdiction.

Note: 1. Net Profit Margin (NPM) is the equivalent measure of net interest income calculated for Islamic banks, where we include income from financing activities, along with income from Inter-bank placements with Islamic banks and investment income in debt-type instruments, excluding finance expenses and investment account holders' profit.
