  - (a) abridging the time for service of the Notice of Motion and Motion Record of the Receiver and validating service thereof;
  - (b) approving the asset purchase agreement, dated July 7, 2025 (the "APA"), entered into between the Receiver and Giftcraft 2025 Inc. (the "Purchaser") and the transaction contemplated therein (the "Transaction"), and upon delivery of a certificate of the Receiver certifying that the Transaction has been completed to the satisfaction of the Receiver, vesting the right, title and interest of the Subject Companies (defined below) in and to the Purchased Assets (as defined in the APA) in and to the Purchaser; and
  - (c) authorizing the Receiver to take such steps and execute such additional documents as may be necessary or desirable for the completion of the Transaction and the conveyance of the Purchased Assets to the Purchaser.
- 2. An Order substantially in the form attached as Tab 5 of the Receiver's Motion Record, providing the following relief:
  - (a) abridging the time for service of the Notice of Motion and Motion Record of the Receiver and validating service thereof;

- (b) approving the First Report to the Court of the Receiver, dated July 8, 2025, and the activities and conduct of the Receiver described therein;
- (c) approving the Receiver's statement of receipts and disbursements to June 27, 2025 (the "Receiver's R&D"); and
- (d) sealing the Confidential Appendices to the First Report until the closing of the Transaction, or further order of the Court.
- 3. Such further and other relief that the Receiver may request and this Honourable Court may consider just.

THE GROUNDS FOR THIS MOTION ARE:

Background

- 4. The Debtors are comprised of a group of companies in which GHI is the ultimate parent. Giftcraft Canada is the sole Canadian incorporated entity, and the other Debtors are incorporated in the United States.
- 5. The Debtors operate from leased premises located at 8550 Airport Road, Brampton, Ontario (the "Premises").
- 6. The Debtors primarily operate in two business segments:
  - (a) as a producer and distributer of women's apparel aimed at the vacation and leisure market, which is operated by Ripskirt; and
  - (b) as a supplier of primarily gift items, including home decor, jewelry, and other novelties that are distributed primarily through retailers across North America, which is operated by Giftcraft Canada and Giftcraft US (herein collectively referred to as "Giftcraft").
- 7. Giftcraft Canada had 60 employees and Giftcraft US had 2 employees as of the date of the Receivership Order. Giftcraft's workforce is not unionized.

- 8. Yosox operates as an e-commerce company and sells socks and other novelties products acquired from Giftcraft Canada to customers in the United States. Yosox has no employees or material assets.
- 9. The Debtors defaulted on their loans with Royal Bank of Canada ("RBC"), and upon the application of RBC, the Receiver was appointed pursuant to the Receivership Order.
- 10. As of the date of the Receiver's appointment, the Debtors were indebted to RBC in the approximate amount of CA$49.7 million, exclusive of fees, costs and interest. RBC is expected to suffer a shortfall in the repayment of its indebtedness.
- 11. Since its appointment, the Receiver has managed the Debtors' business with a view to selling their assets on a going-concern basis.

U.S. Recognition

- 12. On May 20, 2025, Giftcraft Canada, Giftcraft US, Yosox and Ripskirt (collectively, the "Chapter 15 Debtors") filed voluntary petitions under chapter 15 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of New York (the "U.S. Court"), with such cases being jointly administered for procedural purposes only as Case No. 25-11030 (MG) (the "Chapter 15 Cases");
- 13. Pursuant to the Order entered on June 16, 2025, by the U.S. Court in the Chapter 15 Cases, the Receivership Proceeding was recognized and the Receivership Order was given effect in the United States as they pertain to the Chapter 15 Debtors.

Marketing Efforts

- 14. Pursuant to the Receivership Order, the Receiver is empowered and authorized, among other things:
  - (a) to market any or all of the Property, including advertising and soliciting offers in respect of the Property or any part or parts thereof and negotiating such terms and conditions of sale as the Receiver in its discretion may deem appropriate; and

- (b) to apply for any vesting order or other orders necessary to convey the Property or any part or parts thereof to a purchaser or purchasers thereof, free and clear of any liens or encumbrances affecting such Property.
- 15. Upon its appointment, the Receiver recognized immediately that the Debtors' business was subject to rapid deterioration in value and goodwill if a sales process was not commenced immediately.
- 16. An expedited sales process for the Giftcraft business was required due to, among other things, the limited market of buyers for the Property, many of which are experiencing their own liquidity challenges and inventory issues in the current market and trade war, the seasonality of the business and the need to meet impending deadlines for holiday orders, the uncertainty for employees and the Debtors' ongoing significant liquidity challenges.
- 17. The Receiver contacted a total of eighteen (18) potentially interested parties, consisting primarily of strategic buyers. Ten (10) interested parties executed confidentiality agreements and were provided access to a virtual data room. The Receiver held follow-up diligence calls with potential bidders and to the extent requested, organized site visits to the Premises to allow interested parties to view the Debtors' operations and meet with management.
- 18. Receiver asked potential bidders to submit a non-binding letter of intent ("LOI") on or before May 30, 2025. Two (2) LOIs were received by May 30, 2025. One from an affiliate of the Purchaser for the business and assets of Giftcraft and Yosox, and the other was for all of the Property.
- 19. The Receiver reviewed both LOIs and concluded that the offer from the Purchaser was the superior offer for the Giftcraft and Yosox businesses and proceeded to negotiate the terms of the APA.
- 20. The Receiver is continuing to market the Ripskirt business.

APA

- 21. Subject to the approval by the Court, the Receiver and the Purchaser executed the APA which contemplates the sale of substantially all of the assets of Giftcraft Canada, Giftcraft US and Yosox (collectively, the "Subject Companies") as a going concern. The assets of Ripskirt are not subject to the APA.
- 22. The Transaction is on an "as is, where is" basis with limited representations and warranties.
- 23. As set out in the First Report, the Receiver recommends the approval of the APA for the following reasons, among others:
  - (a) the Sale Process undertaken by the Receiver was commercially reasonable and involved the participation of multiple interested parties and multiple offers;
  - (b) there is not sufficient funding available to support a prolonged sales process and the value of the Purchased Assets are at risk of being diminished by additional employee departures and lost customer orders due to the uncertainty caused by the within proceedings;
  - (c) RBC, which is expected to suffer a loss, supports the Transaction and any further marketing efforts are not likely to result in proceeds that would be in excess of RBC's indebtedness;
  - (d) the Transaction provides greater value than a forced liquidation of assets;
  - (e) the APA provides for a going-concern sale to the Purchaser, which preserves significant value and maintains important customer and vendor relationships and provides for employment for certain of the employees of Giftcraft Canada; and
  - (f) based on the available alternatives, the Transaction is in the best interests of the stakeholders of Giftcraft and Yosox.

Sealing

24. The Confidential Appendices to the First Report contain commercially sensitive information, including a summary of offers and the Receiver's liquidation analysis. If this information is publicly disclosed, it could negatively affect the Receiver's ability to market the business to other interested parties and obtain the highest and best price if the Transaction does not close. Accordingly, the Receiver requests an order that the Confidential Appendices be sealed until the closing of the Transaction or further order of this Honourable Court.

Approval of R&D

25. The R&D is appended to the First Report. As of June 27, 2025, the Receiver has $2,430,990 in net funds on hand.

Other Grounds

- 26. Section 243 of the BIA;
- 27. Section 100 of the Courts of Justice Act;
- 28. Rules 1.04, 1.05, 2.01, 2.03, 16.04 and 37 of the Rules of Civil Procedure (Ontario); and
- 29. Such further and other grounds as counsel may advise this Court may permit.

THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE WILL BE USED AT THE HEARING OF THE MOTION:

1. The First Report; and

2. Such further and other materials as counsel may advise and this Honourable Court may permit.

IV. BACKGROUND

Overview of the Debtors

9. The Debtors are comprised of a group of companies in which GHI is the ultimate parent, Giftcraft Canada is the sole Canadian incorporated entity, and Midco, GH USA, Giftcraft US, Yosox and Ripskirt are incorporated in the United States, as outlined below:

- 10. The Debtors operate from leased premises located at 8550 Airport Road in Brampton, Ontario (the "Premises").
- 11. The Debtors primarily operate in two business segments:
  - (a) as a producer and distributer of women's apparel aimed at the vacation and leisure market, specifically quick-drying skirts, dresses, and cover-ups, which are sold through primarily direct to consumer through e-commerce channels. This business is operated by Ripskirt; and
  - (b) as a supplier of primarily gift items, including home decor, jewelry, and other novelties that are distributed primarily through retailers across North America, ranging from independent specialty retailers to national chains. This business is operated by Giftcraft Canada and Giftcraft US (herein collectively referred to as "Giftcraft").

Giftcraft

- 12. Giftcraft is a wholesale distributor of lifestyle, fashion, décor, giftware, health and wellness products. It was founded in 1946 and is headquartered at the Premises. Prior to the Date of Appointment, Giftcraft operated showrooms in Brampton, Ontario, Atlanta, Georgia, Dallas, Texas, and Las Vegas, Nevada.
- 13. Giftcraft's products include bed and bath products, furniture, apparel, jewelry, kitchen products, lighting solutions, photo frames and planters, among other items. Giftcraft had generated the majority of its sales through its road and show sales channels, which sold its products to independent or speciality retailers throughout North America (the "Road Business"). Giftcraft exited the Road Business in or about March 2025 to focus on the key account channel, which sold private label products to national retail chains throughout North America (the "Key Account Business").
- 15. In 2024, Giftcraft generated revenues of $58 million, of which approximately $44.4 million was related to the Road Business and approximately $13.6 million was for the Key Account Business.
- 16. Giftcraft Canada had 60 employees and Giftcraft US had 2 employees as at the Date of Appointment. Giftcraft's workforce is not unionized and Giftcraft does not maintain a pension plan for its employees, however it did have a defined contribution plan for legacy employees that was frozen in the 1990s.
- 17. Based on the Debtors' books and records, Giftcraft US had approximately $3.5 million of accounts receivable, and Giftcraft Canada had approximately $13.0 million of book value inventory (a large portion of which was related to the now-defunct Road Business) and $2.5 million of accounts receivable, as at the Date of Appointment. Giftcraft US holds no inventory as all inventory is either purchased from Giftcraft Canada or from overseas suppliers and shipped directly to its customers.

Ripskirt

- 18. The Debtors acquired Ripskirt from its original founder on September 16, 2022.
- 19. RipSkirt is a retailer of quick-wrap skirts, dresses, tops and T-shirts, cover-ups and accessories. a third-party logistics facility operated by NP Fulfillment in Australia, as at the Date of Appointment.

RBC Credit Facilities

- 29. Pursuant to a commitment letter dated March 21, 2024 from HSBC Bank Canada ("HSBC"), as lender, to Giftcraft Canada, as borrower (as amended, the "Operating Facility Letter"), HSBC extended various credit facilities to Giftcraft Canada, including a revolving demand facility in the principal amount of $15 million.
- 30. Pursuant to a separate commitment letter also dated March 21, 2024 from HSBC, as lender, to Giftcraft Canada and Midco, as borrowers (the "Borrowers") (as amended, the "Capital Facility Letter," and with the Operating Facility letter, the "Facility Letters"), HSBC extended various credit facilities to Giftcraft Canada and Midco, including three non-revolving demand facilities in the principal amounts of approximately USD$16.875 million, USD$3.0 million, and USD$8.1 million, respectively (the "Capital Loans").
- 31. Effective March 29, 2024, RBC and HSBC (and certain of HSBC's affiliated entities) amalgamated and continued as RBC. As a result, RBC assumed all the business and assets of HSBC, including all of its right, title, and interest in the Operating Facility Letter and the Capital Facility Letter.
- 32. In accordance with the terms of the Operating Facility Letter, the Operating Loan is secured by various security granted by Giftcraft Canada in favor of RBC. This included a General Security Agreement, dated as of January 10, 2019, by Giftcraft Ltd. and Giftcraft Holdings Canada Ltd. (corporate predecessors of Giftcraft Canada) (the "Giftcraft Canada GSA") granting to RBC a security interest in all present or after-acquired personal property of Giftcraft Canada and all proceeds and renewals thereof, accretions thereto, and substitutions therefor.

- 33. In accordance with the terms of the Capital Facility Letter, the Capital Loans are secured by various security granted by Giftcraft Canada and Midco in favor of RBC, including, without limitation, the Giftcraft Canada GSA, and a General Security Agreement dated as of January 10, 2019 by Midco and GH USA, GHI, Giftcraft US, and Yosox (the "Giftcraft US GSA"). The Giftcraft US GSA grants a security interest in all present or after-acquired personal property of each of Midco, GH USA, GHI, Giftcraft US, and Yosox.
- 34. Additionally, the debts and liabilities owing by the Borrowers to RBC, including under the Facility Letters, were guaranteed by each of Midco, GH USA, GHI, Giftcraft US and Yosox (collectively, the "Guarantors"), pursuant to a guaranty of payment dated as of January 10, 2019 (the "Secured Guarantee"). Ripskirt assumed and joined the Secured Guarantee as a Guarantor by the guaranty of payment joinder dated September 16, 2022 (the "Guarantee Joinder").
- 35. The Secured Guarantee is secured by the Giftcraft US GSA. Ripskirt assumed and joined the Giftcraft US GSA by the security agreement joinder dated September 16, 2022 (the "GSA Joinder"). The Giftcraft US GSA and GSA Joinder grant to RBC a security interest in all present or after-acquired personal property of the Guarantors.
- 36. As at the Date of Appointment, approximately $49.7 million, exclusive of fees, costs and interest, was outstanding under the Facility Letters (the "RBC Secured Debt").
- 37. The Receiver has instructed independent counsel in Canada, Harrison Pensa LLP ("Harrison")<sup>1</sup>, and in the United States, Chipman Brown Cicero & Cole, LLP ("Chipman"), to review RBC's security and to render an opinion in due course with respect to the validity and enforceability thereof. Harrison has issued an opinion, subject to standard assumptions and qualifications, that the RBC Security in Canada is valid and enforceable.

Potential Priority Claims

- 38. Based on the Debtors' books and records, the Receiver understands that the Debtors had liabilities as of the Date of Appointment that rank, or may rank, in priority to the RBC Secured Debt, including:
  - (a) approximately $158,298 owed to current or former employees of the Debtors, in respect of gross vacation pay accrued to the Date of Appointment (the "Pre-Filing Vacation Pay"), of which approximately $35,000 could be subject to a priority under section 81.4 of the BIA;
  - (b) approximately $2,401 owed to Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") in respect of prefiling sales taxes for April 2025 (the "Pre-Filing HST");
  - (c) approximately $8,304 owed to Revenu Quebec in respect of pre-filing sales taxes for April 2025 (the "Pre-Filing QST");
  - (d) approximately $584 owed to the Government of British Columbia in respect of prefiling sales taxes for April 2025 (the "Pre-Filing PST")
  - (e) approximately USD$115,217 owed to the Commonwealth of Virginia Department of Taxation in respect of pre-filing state use taxes (the "Pre-Filing VT Taxes"); and
  - (f) approximately AUD$35,498 owed to the Australian Taxation Office in respect of pre-filing value-added taxes for April (the "Pre-Filing AUS Taxes" and together with the Pre-Filing HST, the Pre-Filing QST, the Pre-Filing PST, the Pre-Filing VT Taxes, the "Pre-Filing Taxes").
- 39. The Receiver notes the CRA is currently completing a review of the Giftcraft Canada's books and records as part of a sales tax audit. Further, the Receiver is currently reviewing the Debtors' books and records to understand the nature and support for the Pre-Filing

- Taxes and also in discussions with its counsel on the relative priority of each claim as against the RBC Secured Debt.
- 40. In addition, the appointment of the Receiver resulted in some suppliers having the right under section 81.1 of the BIA to demand that the Receiver either pay for, or return, certain goods supplied in the 30 days prior to the Appointment Order. To date the Receiver has received one claim under 81.1 of BIA in the total amount of $13,329. The Receiver has reviewed the claim and noted the subject goods were not in the Receiver's possession at the time of the demand was received. The Receiver consented to the return of the subject goods to the claimant subject to the repayment of the deposit. The deposit was repaid and the claimant repossessed its goods.
- 41. Finally, as noted above, Ripskirt's inventory is located at the 3PL managed by FedEx Supply Chain. On or about June 5, 2025, the Receiver received notice from FedEx Supply Chain that it was suspending services to Ripskirt until an agreement could be reached on a prepayment amounts for post-filing services and a means to protect FedEx Supply Chain's purported lien against the inventory held in the 3PL. FedEx Supply Chain was owed approximately USD$580,000 as at the Date of Appointment. Halting the 3PL services would be detrimental to the Ripskirt business as it would prevent the fulfillment of customer orders and impact the Receiver's ability to sell Ripskirt as a going concern.
- 42. Over the subsequent days, the Receiver, FedEx Supply Chain and RBC, and their respective counsels, engaged in series of discussions to resolve these issues in order to resume services at the 3PL. FedEx Supply Chain asserted that it had a lien on the goods that ranked in priority to RBC. On June 10, 2025, the parties agreed that, in addition to the Receiver providing FedEx Supply Chain with a security deposit for post-filing services, the Receiver would set aside funds over a 6-week period until the estimated pre-filing amounts owed to FedEx Supply Chain would be fully reserved for and held in trust by the Receiver pending further order of the Courts with respect to the extent, validity and priority of the liens of RBC and FedEx Supply Chain, respectively, with respect to the Ripskirt inventory. FedEx Supply Chain resumed services at the 3PL on the same date.

Unsecured Claims

43. The Receiver understands that the Debtors had unsecured trade payables of approximately $4 million as at the Date of Appointment, the majority of which relates to amounts owed to the landlord for the Premises, Ripskirt service providers in the United States and Debtors' foreign suppliers of goods.

As noted above, the Receiver has also established a dedicated toll-free hotline 1-833-724-5995 for general creditor inquiries, as well as a general email address giftcraft@kpmg.ca to address specific questions or concerns from stakeholders with respect to these receivership proceedings.

- 47. The Receiver notes the following in connection with the Interim R&D:
  - (a) wherever possible, the Receiver has maintained the Debtors' cash management system, which includes a total of 7 active bank accounts located at HSBC, RBC and CIBC (the "Cash Management System") without material change since the Date of Appointment. The Debtors' primary banking accounts utilized in the Cash Management System are held at HSBC and RBC. In addition, the Receiver has opened two (2) additional estate accounts (the "Estate Accounts", and together with the existing Cash Management System, the "Receivership Accounts"). The Interim R&D includes the combined receipts and disbursements in the Receivership Accounts;
  - (b) as shown in the Interim R&D, receipts, totaled approximately $5.4 million. Approximately $3.4 million is related to the collection of Giftcraft accounts receivable and other miscellaneous receipts, The remaining approximately $2.0 million is related to receipts generated from Ripskirt sales; and
  - (c) disbursements during the period of the Interim R&D, totaled approximately $3.8 million and primarily consisted of payroll and source deductions, inventory payments, and occupation rent for the Premises.
- 48. Since May 26, 2025, the Receiver has been in discussions with HSBC Bank USA, N.A. ("HSBC") regarding continued access and use of the Debtors accounts with HSBC. The Receiver notes that since that date a number of pre-filing payments have cleared through the Debtors' HSBC account, totalling approximately USD$40,000, which amounts are reflected in the Interim R&D. The Receiver is investigating the possibility of returning these payments with HSBC.

VII. RECEIVER'S EFFORTS TO MARKET THE PROPERTY

- 49. The Receiver recognized immediately that the Debtors' business was subject to rapid deterioration in value and goodwill if a sales process was not commenced immediately. The Receiver, with the powers authorized by the Appointment Order, in particular paragraph 3(j) thereof, immediately began soliciting interest from prospective parties on an expedited basis.
- 50. In the Receiver's view, an expedited sales process for Giftcraft and Yosox was required due to the following reasons:
  - (a) Limited market of buyers for the Property: Many of Giftcraft's competitors are also experiencing liquidity challenges and inventory issues and as such, may not be interested in an acquisition in the current environment. Further, the current trade war and resulting tariffs implemented by the United States has created uncertainty in the market as the majority of the Debtors' products are sourced from China, where tariffs have fluctuated anywhere between 20% and 145% over the prior 3 months.
  - (b) Seasonality of business: The Purchased Assets need to be transferred to a buyer as soon as possible to allow a purchaser sufficient time to meet certain manufacturing and shipping deadlines for holiday orders for the Key Accounts Business. An expedited sales process also affords a purchaser the ability to complete and fulfill customer orders for the Key Accounts Business in order to maintain the going concern value of Giftcraft.
  - (c) Retaining talent and necessary employee base: the Receivership Proceedings have created uncertainty for the Debtors' employees, particularly at Giftcraft. Since the Date of Appointment, approximately eight (8) Giftcraft employees have tendered their resignations, including those in senior positions of sales, logistics, and product designs. A relatively quick transaction for Giftcraft is needed to be undertaken immediately in order to preserve as many critical employees as possible for a potential purchaser in order to maintain a going concern value.

(d) Limited cash flows: the Debtors experienced significant liquidity challenges prior to the Date of Appointment, where the business was projected to burn approximately $1.6 million between the months of May and July, due to funding operating losses of Giftcraft, coupled with outflows required to fulfill Giftcraft customer orders for the holiday season. While the Receiver has attempted to limit costs where possible, Giftcraft has a high fixed cost base with monthly rent and payroll costs of approximately $0.5 million each. Funds from the collection of Giftcraft accounts receivable and sale of inventory have been limited due to the closure of the Road Business. Absent an immediate sale of the Purchased Assets, the Receiver will require additional funding through the use of Receiver's Borrowings, which will only further increase RBC's exposure and eventual loss on its secured advances.

Solicitation Process

- 51. On or about the Date of Appointment, the Receiver immediately began working in good faith and with due diligence to fulfill its duties and responsibilities under the Appointment Order with the aim to pursue a sale process (the "Sale Process") with respect to all of the Property in an effort to maximize value for the benefit of all stakeholders. A summary of the key aspects of the Sale Process and its results are summarized below:
  - (a) the Receiver contacted a total of eighteen (18) potentially interested parties (the "Interested Parties"), consisting primarily of strategic buyers, in connection with a sale or other strategic restructuring transaction involving the Debtors' business and assets. The Interested Parties contacted include parties that had previously expressed an interest in some or all of the Debtors' assets through formal or informal marketing efforts conducted by the Debtors prior to entry of the Appointment Order;
  - (b) the Receiver held introductory calls with many of these parties, and ten (10) of the Interested Parties executed CAs (the "Potential Bidders") with the Receiver and were provided access to the VDR maintained by the Receiver containing financial, operational, and other diligence information concerning the Debtors and their assets to assist the Potential Bidders in evaluating a potential transaction;

- (c) the Receiver held follow-up diligence calls with many of the Potential Bidders and, to the extent requested, organized a site visit to the Premises for one Potential Bidder (being the Purchaser) to review Giftcraft's operations and meet with management;
- (d) the Receiver asked Potential Bidders to submit a non-binding letter of intent ("LOI"), on or before May 30, 2025, if they were interested in pursuing a transaction for some or all of the Debtors' business or assets;
- (e) the Receiver received two (2) LOIs by May 30, 2025. One LOI was from CTG Brands Inc. ("CTG"), an affiliate of the Purchaser, for business and assets of Giftcraft and Yosox, and the other was for all of the Property, including Ripskirt; and
- (f) the Receiver reviewed both LOIs and concluded that the offer from CTG provided the highest consideration for Giftcraft and Yosox, and was the offer the Receiver would pursue on an exclusive basis to a closing. Accordingly, on or about June 6, 2025, the Receiver advised CTG and the other Potential Bidders of its intended course of action for the sale of Giftcraft and Yosox.
- 52. Over the past four (4) weeks, the Receiver has been working with CTG to address a number of conditions contained in its offer. These conditions included discussions with Giftcraft employees, review of customer contracts, and the pipeline of customer purchase orders for the Key Accounts Business.
- 53. On July 7, 2025, the Purchaser and the Receiver executed the APA, which remains subject to the Courts approving the Transaction.
- 54. The Receiver has prepared a schedule summarizing and comparing all offers received in the Sale Process (the "Offer Summary"). Further, the Receiver prepared a liquidation analysis of the Purchased Assets (the "Liquidation Analysis") taking into consideration such things as the:
  - (a) quality of the accounts receivable and inventory;
  - (b) value of the fixed assets; and

- (c) costs of operating and realizing on Giftcraft's assets, including professional fees.
- 55. In the event the Canadian Court approves the Transaction and the APA, but the Transaction does not close, the Receiver is of the view that efforts to remarket the Purchased Assets may be impaired if the Offer Summary or the Liquidation Analysis, which have each been filed separately with the Canadian Court as Confidential Appendix "1" and Confidential Appendix "2", respectively, are made public at this time. In the circumstances, the Receiver is of the view that it is appropriate for the Offer Summary and the Liquidation Analysis be sealed pending further order of the Canadian Court.
- 56. The Receiver notes it continues to market the business and assets of Ripskirt for sale to prospective purchasers and will provide an update to the Canadian Court in respect thereof in due course.

VIII. TRANSACTION

&lt;sup>3</sup> The Receiver may refer to "Giftcraft Ltd.", "Giftcraft Inc.", and "Yosox USA Inc." as former names, including for legal and noticing purposes in the Receivership Proceedings, the winding down of the affairs of the Subject Companies, for the purposes of liquidation sales, sales of Damaged Inventory, or the collection of accounts receivable included in Excluded Assets, or as otherwise required by Applicable Law.

- obligations under APA for a period of three (3) business days after being notified of such failure to comply;
- iv. the Receiver or the Purchaser, on written notice to the other party, if such party has failed to satisfy the conditions outlined in the APA; and
- v. either party if the Approval and Vesting Order and the Sale Recognition Order have not been pronounced and entered by the Outside Date.
- 59. Pending the closing of the Transaction, the Purchaser or CTG intends to issue one or more purchase orders to the Receiver to purchase a portion of the inventory currently in the Receiver's possession. Any purchase order will be for under $250,000 and will not, in the aggregate, exceed the cap of $1,000,000 for out of the ordinary course sales that do not require Canadian Court approval.
- 60. Upon the waiver or satisfaction of the conditions precedent, and the completion of the Transaction, the Receiver will file the Receiver's Certificate with the Canadian Court attesting that the Transaction has been completed to the satisfaction of the Receiver and confirming the closing of the sale for the Purchased Assets.

IX. CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

- 61. The Receiver is of the view that the Transaction represents the best value for the Purchased Assets in the circumstances and recommends the Canadian Court issue an order approving the APA and the Transaction for the following reasons:
  - (a) the Sale Process undertaken by the Receiver was commercially reasonable and involved the participation of multiple interested parties and multiple offers;
  - (b) the Receiver is operating the Debtors' business on a limited basis since the Date of Appointment and there is not sufficient funding available to support a prolonged sales process for the Purchased Assets;
  - (c) RBC is the creditor with the largest economic interest in the Purchased Assets and any further marketing efforts, in the Receiver's view, are not likely to result in proceeds that would be in excess of the RBC Secured Debt;

- (d) the Transaction provides a return to RBC that is higher than what could be achieved in a forced liquidation of assets;
- (e) RBC, which is expected to suffer a loss on its secured advances to the Debtors, supports the Transaction;
- (f) the APA provides for a going-concern sale to the Purchaser, which preserves significant value and maintains important customer and vendor relationships of Giftcraft and Yosox and, conditional upon closing of the Transaction, provides for employment for certain of the employees of Giftcraft Canada. Based on the available alternatives, the Transaction is in the best interests of the stakeholders of Giftcraft and Yosox; and
- (g) time is of the essence as the Purchased Assets remains at risk of being diminished by additional employee departures and lost customer orders due to the uncertainty caused by the Receivership Proceedings which, in the Receiver's view, do not support further marketing of the Purchased Assets.
- 62. Based on the foregoing, the Receiver recommends that this Court grant the relief as set out in its Notice of Motion.

All of which is respectfully submitted this 8th day of July 2025.

ENDORSEMENT OF JUSTICE OSBORNE:

- [1] The Royal Bank of Canada ("RBC)" brings this application for the appointment of KPMG Inc. as Receiver of all of the assets of Giftcraft Ltd., Giftcraft Midco, Inc., Giftcraft Holdings USA, Inc., Giftcraft Holdings, Inc., Giftcraft Inc. Ripskirt Hawaii, LLC and Yosox USA Inc. (collectively, the "Debtors") pursuant to section 243 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act ("BIA") and section 101 of the Courts of Justice Act (the "CJA").
- [2] RBC relies upon the affidavit of Mr. Andrew O'Coin sworn May 12, 2025, together with exhibits thereto.
- [3] Defined terms in this Endorsement have the meaning given to them in the Application materials unless otherwise stated.
- [4] The Debtors ("Respondents") do not oppose the relief sought. KPMG consents to act as Receiver, if so appointed.
- [5] The Debtors are currently indebted to RBC with respect to certain credit facilities. The indebtedness is approximately CDN $15 million and USD $27 million. The indebtedness is secured by, among other things, general security agreements. The Debtors have committed events of default in the form of covenant defaults, and in particular, breaches of the Liquidity Covenant, the Income Covenant and the Margin Requirement. None of this is contested by the Debtors.
- [6] On March 7, 2025, RBC issue demands for payment and Notices of Intention to Enforce pursuant to section 244 of the BIA. The 10 day notice period has long expired.
- [7] On March 20, 2025, RBC and the Debtors entered into a Forbearance Agreement with effect until April 30, 2025, on which date it expired. The Forbearance Agreement provides that the Debtor's consent to the appointment of a Receiver, and that consent is confirmed by counsel to the Debtors today.
- [8] Giftcraft Canada Ltd. carries on business from leased premises at 8550 Airport Road, Brampton, Ontario. Monthly rent is $495,000. On May 1, 2025, the landlord amended payment for rent arrears for the months of February to May, 2025. In the amount of $1,001,732.55. Landlord has apparently requested additional rent for the month of May in the amount of $247,860.41 the paid immediately.
- [9] The other Respondents are US companies for which the bank holds security. RBC submits and the debtors do not contest that there is approximately CDN $4 million in inventory located in the United States which will be at risk if the stay is not obtained from the United States Bankruptcy Court pursuant to Chapter 15 of the United States Bankruptcy Code. If

- the Receiver is appointed today, it is expected that the Receiver will pursue Chapter 15 relief from the US Bankruptcy Court.
- [10] The RBC credit facilities are fully described in the O'Coin affidavit and exhibits thereto. So too are the defaults. Those are described in particular in the Demand letters attached as exhibits "S" and "T".
- [11] RBC has lost confidence in the Debtors and their ability to repay the indebtedness. The Debtors acknowledged that there are, at present, no other options.
- [12] The test for the appointment of a receiver pursuant to section 243 of the BIA or section 101 of the CJA is not in dispute. Is it just or convenient to do so?
- [13] In making a determination about whether it is, in the circumstances of a particular case, just or convenient to appoint a receiver, the Court must have regard to all of the circumstances, but in particular the nature of the property and the rights and interests of all parties in relation thereto. These include the rights of the secured creditor pursuant to its security: Bank of Nova Scotia v. Freure Village on the Clair Creek, 1996 O.J. No. 5088, 1996 CanLII 8258.
- [14] Where the rights of the secured creditor include, pursuant to the terms of its security, the right to seek the appointment of a receiver, the burden on the applicant is lessened: while the appointment of a receiver is generally an extraordinary equitable remedy, the courts do not so regard the nature of the remedy where the relevant security permits the appointment and as a result, the applicant is merely seeking to enforce a term of an agreement already made by both parties: Elleway Acquisitions Ltd. v. Cruise Professionals Ltd., 2013 ONSC 6866 at para. 27. However, the presence or lack of such a contractual entitlement is not determinative of the issue.
- [15] As observed in Canadian Equipment Finance and Leasing Inc. v. The Hypoint Company Limited, 2022 ONSC 6186, the Supreme Court of British Columbia, citing Bennett on Receivership, 2nd ed. (Toronto, Carswell, 1999) listed numerous factors which have been historically taken into account in the determination of whether it is appropriate to appoint a receiver and with which I agree: Maple Trade Finance Inc. v. CY Oriental Holdings Ltd., 2009 BCSC 1527 at para. 25):
  - a. whether irreparable harm might be caused if no order is made, although as stated above, it is not essential for a creditor to establish irreparable harm if a receiver is not appointed where the appointment is authorized by the security documentation;
  - b. the risk to the security holder taking into consideration the size of the debtor's equity in the assets and the need for protection or safeguarding of assets while litigation takes place;
  - c. the nature of the property;

- d. the apprehended or actual waste of the debtor's assets;
- e. the preservation and protection of the property pending judicial resolution;
- f. the balance of convenience to the parties;
- g. the fact that the creditor has a right to appointment under the loan documentation;
- h. the enforcement of rights under a security instrument where the security-holder encounters or expects to encounter difficulties with the debtor;
- i. the principle that the appointment of a receiver should be granted cautiously;
- j. the consideration of whether a court appointment is necessary to enable the receiver to carry out its duties efficiently;
- k. the effect of the order upon the parties;
- 1. the conduct of the parties;
- m. the length of time that a receiver may be in place;
- n. the cost to the parties;
- o. the likelihood of maximizing return to the parties; and
- p. the goal of facilitating the duties of the receiver.
- [16] How are these factors to be applied? The British Columbia Supreme Court put it, I think, correctly: "these factors are not a checklist but a collection of considerations to be viewed holistically in an assessment as to whether, in all the circumstances, the appointment of a receiver is just or convenient: Pandion Mine Finance Fund LP v. Otso Gold Corp., 2022 BCSC 136 at para. 54).
- [17] It is not essential that the moving party establish, prior to the appointment of a receiver, that it will suffer irreparable harm or that the situation is urgent. However, where the evidence respecting the conduct of the debtor suggests that a creditor's attempts to privately enforce its security will be delayed or otherwise fail, a court-appointed receiver may be warranted: Bank of Montreal v. Carnival National Leasing Ltd., 2011 ONSC 1007 at paras. 24, 28-29.
- [18] Accordingly, is it just or convenient to appoint a receiver in the particular circumstances of this case?
- [19] In my view, it is, for the above reasons.
- [20] KPMG consents to act as Receiver and is qualified to do so.
- [21] The Application is granted.

- [22] The draft order is consistent with the Model Order of the Commercial List with appropriate amendments reflecting the particular circumstances of this matter. I am satisfied that the proposed powers of the Receiver and scope of the receivership are appropriate.
- [23] Order to go in the form signed by me which is effective immediately and without the necessity of issuing and entering.

- C. Appropriate notice of the filing of, and the Hearing on, the Verified Petition was given, which notice is deemed adequate for all purposes, and no other or further notice need be given.

L. The relief granted hereby is necessary to effectuate the purposes and objectives of chapter 15 and to protect the Debtors and the interests of their creditors and other parties in interest, is in the interest of the public and international comity, is consistent with the public policy of the United States, and will not cause any hardship to any party in interest that is not outweighed by the benefits of the relief granted. without limitation, staying the commencement or continuation of any actions against the Debtors or their assets (except as otherwise expressly provided herein or therein).

- 5. All objections, if any, to the Verified Petition or the relief requested therein that have not been withdrawn, waived, or settled by stipulation filed with the Court, and all reservations of rights included therein, are hereby overruled on the merits.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Purchaser shall not assume and shall have no obligation in respect of (a) any of the Excluded Assets, or (b) except as expressly provided herein, any Liabilities of the Vendor for Taxes other than as set out in Section 4.6 and Section 4.7.

3.4 Acknowledgements by Purchaser

The Purchaser acknowledges that:

- (c) despite the issuance of the Approval and Vesting Order, the Receiver shall have no obligation to complete the Transaction until such time as the Approval and Vesting Order and the Sale Recognition Order each become a Final Order and the Purchaser shall have no rights thereunder, nor any right, title or interest in the Purchased Assets until the Receiver's Certificate is executed and delivered by the Receiver.

4. PURCHASE PRICE AND RELATED MATTERS

4.1 Purchase Price

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the consideration payable by the Purchaser to the Vendor for the Purchased Assets (the "Purchase Price") shall consist of the aggregate of:

- (a) $2,666,000 (the "Base Purchase Price");
- (b) plus the Value of Inventory;
- (c) plus the Value of Accounts Receivable;
- (d) plus the Value of Pre-Closing Deposits;
- (e) plus the Value of Charlie Page In-Transit Inventory Payments; and
- (f) plus the assumption of the Assumed Liabilities.

For clarity, the calculation of the Base Purchase Price includes (a) the value of deposits paid by the Subject Companies to a third-party prior to June 20, 2025, in connection with the future delivery of goods pursuant to any Assumed Contracts; and (b) 50% of any Cure Payments.

4.2 Deposit

- (a) Within one (1) Business Day of the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor's Solicitors, in trust, a deposit of $900,000 by wire transfer of immediately available funds (the "Deposit"), which shall be held in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement pending completion or other termination of this Agreement and shall be applied against and towards the Purchase Price due on Closing;
- (b) if the Closing does not occur by reason of the failure by the Purchaser to perform any of the covenants or conditions on the Purchaser's part to be performed hereunder and which cannot or will not be remedied by the Purchaser by the Closing Date, then the Deposit shall be forfeited to the Vendor on account of liquidated damages and no Party to this Agreement shall have a claim against any other Party hereto with respect to this Agreement other than the Vendor's claim to the Deposit as aforesaid; and
- (c) if the Closing does not occur for any other reason by the Outside Date, the Deposit shall be returned to the Purchaser without interest and no Party to this Agreement shall have a claim against any other Party with respect to this Agreement other than the Purchaser's claim to the return of the Deposit as aforesaid.

4.3 Payment at Closing

At the Closing Time, the Purchaser shall pay by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the Vendor, or as the Vendor may direct in writing, an amount equal to:

- (a) the Base Purchase Price;
- (b) less the Deposit;
- (c) plus the Estimated Value of Inventory;
- (d) plus the Estimated Value of Accounts Receivable;
- (e) plus the Value of Pre-Closing Deposits;
- (f) plus the Value of Charlie Page In-Transit Inventory Payments; and
- (g) plus all applicable Transfer Taxes.

At least three (3) Business Days prior to the Closing Date, the Vendor shall prepare and deliver to the Purchaser a statement setting forth its calculations of (i) the estimated Value of Inventory as of the Closing Time (the "Estimated Value of Inventory"); (ii) the estimated Value of Accounts Receivable as of the Closing Time (the "Estimated Value of Accounts Receivable"); (iii) the Value of Pre-Closing Deposits as of the Closing Time; and (iv) the Value of Charlie Page In-Transit Inventory Payments.

4.4 Purchase Price Post-Closing Adjustment

- (a) Within fifteen (15) days following the Closing Date, the Purchaser may prepare and deliver to the Vendor a statement (the "Final Statement") setting forth its calculation of: (i) the actual Value of Inventory as of the Closing Time (the "Actual Value of Accounts Receivable as of the Closing Time (the "Actual Value of Accounts Receivable"). In the event the Purchaser does not deliver to the Vendor a Final Statement within fifteen (15) days following the Closing Date, the Estimated Value of Inventory and the Estimated Value of Accounts Receivable shall be deemed final, conclusive, and binding upon the Parties for all purposes of this Agreement. Neither Party shall have any further right to dispute, contest, or otherwise challenge the Estimated Value of Inventory or the Estimated Value of Accounts Receivable, and any payments or adjustments required under this Agreement shall be made based on the Estimated Value of Inventory and the Estimated Value of Accounts Receivable.
- (b) The Vendor shall be entitled to review the Final Statement and the Vendor shall be entitled to have access to and to receive copies of any supporting documents relied upon for the purposes of preparing the Final Statement. The Final Statement shall be final and binding upon the parties for all purposes hereof, absent manifest error, unless the Vendor notifies the Purchaser in writing that it disputes any amounts shown therein (such notice, a "Dispute Notice") within ten (10) Business Days after receipt by the Vendor of the Final Statement (the "Review Period").
- (c) In the event that the Vendor disputes any amount shown in the Final Statement, the Parties will work in good faith in an attempt to resolve such disputes within ten (10) Business Days after the date of notification by the Vendor to the Purchaser of such disputes, failing resolution of which such disputes shall be submitted for determination to an independent national firm of chartered accountants mutually agreed to by the Parties (and, failing such agreement between the Parties within a further period of five (5) days, such independent national firm of chartered accountants shall be selected by two such national firms, one nominated by the Vendor, on one hand, and the Purchaser, on the other hand) (the "Third-Party Accounting Firm").
- (d) The Third-Party Accounting Firm will determine (based solely on written and, if requested by the Third-Party Accounting Firm, oral presentations and a review of working papers of the Purchaser, the Vendor and their respective representatives, as applicable, and not by independent review) only those matters in dispute and will render a written report as to the disputed matters and any disputed calculations included in the Final Statement, which written report of the Third-Party Accounting Firm will be conclusive and binding upon the Parties. In resolving any disputed item, the Third-Party Accounting Firm shall act as an expert and not as arbitrator and may not assign a value to any item greater than the greatest value for such item claimed by the Purchaser or the Vendor or less than the smallest value for such item claimed by the Purchaser or the Vendor. The determination of the Actual Value of Inventory and the Actual Value of Accounts Receivable as determined by the Third-Party Accounting Firm shall be final and binding upon the Parties and not subject to appeal. The fees of the Third-Party Accounting Firm so appointed shall be borne pro rata as between the Purchaser, on one hand, and the Vendor, on the other hand in proportion to the final allocation made by the Third-Party Accounting Firm of the disputed items weighed in relation to the total quantum of the disputed items, such that the prevailing party pays the lesser proportion of such fees, costs and expenses. For example, if the Vendor claims the Value of Inventory is, in the aggregate, $1,000 greater than the Value of Inventory determined by the Purchaser in the Final Statement and if the Third-Party Accounting Firm ultimately resolves the dispute by awarding to the Vendor an aggregate of $300 of the $1,000 contested, then the fees, costs and expenses of the Third-Party Accounting Firm will be allocated 30% (i.e. $300 divided by $1,000) to the Purchaser and 70% (i.e. $700 divided by $1,000) to the Vendor. The Vendor, on the one hand, and the Purchaser, on the other hand, shall each bear their own costs in presenting their cases to the Third-Party Accounting Firm.

- (e) If the Vendor fails to deliver a Dispute Notice within the Review Period, the Final Statement (including the calculation of the Actual Value of Inventory and the Actual Value of Accounts Receivable reflected therein) will be conclusive and binding on the Parties. If the Vendor notifies the Purchaser of its agreement with all the items in the Final Statement (including the calculation of the Actual Value of Inventory and the Actual Value of Accounts Receivable reflected therein), such items will be conclusive and binding on the Parties immediately upon such notice.
- (f) Within two (2) Business Days following the resolution of the Actual Value of Inventory and the Actual Value of Accounts Receivable as set forth in this Section 4.4:
  - (i) if the final calculation of the Actual Value of Inventory exceeds the Estimated Value of Inventory, the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor by wire transfer of immediately available funds, the amount of any such excess, if any;
  - (ii) if the final calculation of the Actual Value of Inventory is less than the Estimated Value of Inventory, the Vendor shall pay to the Purchaser, by wire transfer of immediately available funds, the amount of such difference, if any;
  - (iii) if the final calculation of the Actual Value of Accounts Receivable exceeds the Estimated Value of Accounts Receivable, the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor by wire transfer of immediately available funds, the amount of any such excess, if any; and
  - (iv) if the final calculation of the Actual Value of Accounts Receivable is less than the Estimated Value of Accounts Receivable, the Vendor shall pay to the Purchaser, by wire transfer of immediately available funds, the amount of such difference, if any.

(g) Any payments made pursuant to Section 4.4(f) will be effected by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by the Vendor or the Purchaser, as the case may be, and shall be treated as an adjustment to the Purchase Price by the Parties, unless otherwise required by Law.

4.5 Purchase Price Allocation

The Parties agree that the Purchase Price shall be allocated among the Purchased Assets and the Assumed Liabilities as mutually agreed to between the Parties in writing, acting reasonably, prior to Closing and form part of this Agreement.

4.6 Transfer Taxes

The Purchase Price does not include Transfer Taxes, and the Purchaser shall be liable for and shall pay all Transfer Taxes pertaining to the Purchaser's acquisition of the Purchased Assets. Purchaser and Vendor shall cooperate to (i) determine the amount of Transfer Taxes payable in connection with the Transaction, (ii) provide all requisite exemption certificates, if applicable, and (iii) prepare and file any and all required tax returns for or with respect to such Transfer Taxes with any and all appropriate Governmental Authorities. The Purchaser shall indemnify the Vendor for, from and against any Transfer Taxes (including any interest or penalties imposed by a Governmental Authority) that the Vendor may pay or for which the Vendor or the Subject Companies may become liable as a result of any failure by the Purchaser to pay or remit such Transfer Taxes. This covenant to indemnify shall survive the Closing and shall continue in full force for the benefit of the Vendor and the Subject Companies until the expiration of the time during which the relevant Governmental Authority may assess the Vendor or the Subject Companies in respect of the sale and transfer of the Purchased Assets (as extended pursuant to any waivers, including extensions).

4.7 Tax Elections

(a) If available, at the Closing, the Vendor (on behalf of Giftcraft Ltd.) and the Purchaser shall execute jointly an election under Section 167 of the ETA, to have the sale of the Purchased Assets by Giftcraft Ltd. take place on a GST/HST-free basis under Part IX of the ETA. The Purchaser shall file the elections in the manner and within the time prescribed by the relevant legislation, together with a return for the Purchaser's reporting period in which the Transaction occurs and, as soon as reasonably practicable after filing such election, provide the Vendor with proof of filing of such election to the relevant Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Purchaser shall indemnify and hold harmless the Vendor and Giftcraft Ltd. in respect of any GST/HST, penalties, interest and any other amounts, including professional fees, which may be assessed against or become payable by the Vendor and Giftcraft Ltd. as a result of the Transaction under this Agreement not being eligible for such election or as a result of the Purchaser's failure to file the election within the prescribed time. This covenant to indemnify shall survive the Closing and shall continue in full force for the benefit of the Vendor and Giftcraft Ltd. until the expiration of the time during which the relevant Governmental Authority may assess the Vendor and Giftcraft

- Ltd. in respect of the sale and transfer of the Purchased Assets (as extended pursuant to any waivers, including extensions).
- (b) The Purchaser and the Vendor shall, if applicable, elect jointly in the prescribed form under Section 22 of the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the "ITA") and the corresponding provisions of any other applicable provincial Tax statute as to the sale of the Accounts Receivable forming part of the Purchased Assets and designate in such election an amount equal to the portion of the Purchase Price allocated to the Accounts Receivable pursuant to Section 4.5. This election, or these elections, shall be made within the time prescribed for such elections.
- (c) The Purchaser and the Vendor shall, if applicable, jointly execute and file an election under Subsection 20(24) of the ITA in the manner required by Subsection 20(25) of the ITA and under the equivalent or corresponding provisions of any other applicable provincial or territorial statute, in the prescribed forms and within the time period permitted under the ITA and under any other applicable provincial statute as to such amount paid by the Vendor to the Purchaser for assuming future obligations. In this regard, the Purchaser and the Vendor acknowledge that a portion of the Purchased Assets transferred by the Vendor pursuant to this Agreement and having a value equal to the amount elected under subsection 20(24) of the ITA and the equivalent provisions of any applicable provincial or territorial statute, is being transferred by the Vendor as a payment for the assumption of such future obligations by the Purchaser.

4.8 Costs

Except as otherwise provided herein, each of the Vendor and the Purchaser shall be responsible for its own costs (including, without limitation, costs of its solicitors) in respect of this Transaction.

4.9 Assumed Contracts

Subject to Section 4.10, on Closing the Vendor shall be deemed to have assigned the benefit of the Assumed Contracts and the Purchaser shall be deemed to have assumed, all of the Subject Companies' obligations and liabilities relating to such Assumed Contracts arising and accruing in respect of the period after Closing and not related to any default existing at, prior to or as a consequence of the Closing or of the assignment of such Assumed Contract (collectively, the "Assumed Liabilities"), in each case without payment of any additional consideration.

4.10 Consent Required Contracts

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as an agreement to assign any Assumed Contract that is not assignable in whole or in part without the consent, approval or waiver of the party or parties thereto other than the Vendor, unless the consent, approval or waiver required to assign such Assumed Contract has been given. The Purchaser shall use reasonable commercial efforts to obtain any required Third Party Consents. Any Cure Payments required to be paid in connection with the assignment of any Assumed Contract shall be borne equally by the Vendor and the Purchaser, with the Vendor's portion of the Cure Payments deducted from the Purchase Price. Any Cure Payments to be paid following Closing shall be paid by the Purchaser. The Purchaser shall be under no obligation to pay any money, incur any obligations, commence any legal proceedings, or offer or grant any accommodation (financial or otherwise) to any third party in order to obtain any Third Party Consent.

PURCHASER] (the "Giftcraft 2025 Inc. (the "Purchaser") dated [DATE]July 7, 2025 and appended to the First Report of the Receiver, dated [DATE]July 8, 2025 (the "First Report"), and vesting in the Purchaser the Debtor's right, title and interest in and to the assets described of Giftcraft Ltd., Giftcraft Inc. and Yosox USA Inc. (collectively, the "Subject Companies") in and to the Purchased Assets (as defined in the Sale Agreement (the "Purchased Assets"), was heard this day at 330 University Avenue, Toronto, Ontario by judicial videoconference via Zoom.

ON READING the First Report, the Factum of the Receiver dated July 8, 2025, and on hearing the submissions of counsel for the Receiver, [NAMES OF OTHER PARTIES APPEARING] and all other counsel listed on the counsel slip, no one appearing for any other person on the service list, although properly served as appears from the affidavit of [NAME] other particular or the person of the service list, filed<sup>4</sup>:

SERVICE

1. THIS COURT ORDERS that the time for service of the Notice of Motion and the Motion is hereby abridged and validated so that this motion is properly returnable today and hereby dispenses with further service thereof.

APPROVAL OF TRANSACTION

12. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES that the Transaction is hereby approved, and the execution of the Sale Agreement by the Receiver is hereby authorized and approved, with such minor amendments as the Receiver may deem necessary. The Receiver is hereby authorized and directed to take such additional steps and execute such additional &lt;sup>1</sup> This model order assumes that the time for service does not need to be abridged. The motion seeking a vesting order should be served on all persons having an economic interest in the Purchased Assets, unless circumstances warrant a different approach. Counsel should consider attaching the affidavit of service to this Order.

&lt;sup>2</sup> In some cases, notably where this Order may be relied upon for proceedings in the United States, a finding that the Transaction is commercially reasonable and in the best interests of the Debtor and its stakeholders may be necessary. Evidence should be filed to support such a finding, which finding may then be included in the Court's endorsement.

&lt;sup>3</sup> In some cases, the Debtor will be the vendor under the Sale Agreement, or otherwise actively involved in the Transaction. In those cases, care should be taken to ensure that this Order authorizes either or both of the Debtor and the Receiver to execute and deliver documents, and take other steps.

THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES that upon the delivery of a Receiver's certificate to the Purchaser substantially in the form attached as Schedule "A" hereto (the ""Receiver's Certificate""), all of the Debtor's Subject Companies' right, title and interest in and to the Purchased Assets described in the Sale Agreement [and listed on Schedule B hereto]<sup>4</sup>shall vest absolutely in the Purchaser, free and clear of and from any and all security interests (whether contractual, statutory, or otherwise), hypothecs, mortgages, trusts or deemed trusts (whether contractual, statutory, or otherwise), liens, executions, levies, charges, or other financial or monetary claims, whether or not they have attached or been perfected, registered or filed and whether secured, unsecured or otherwise (collectively, the "Claims") including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing: (i) any encumbrances or charges created by the Order of the Honourable Justice NAME Osborne, dated DATE May 14, 2025; and (ii) all charges, security interests or claims evidenced by registrations pursuant to the Personal Property Security Act (Ontario), Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code (Delaware) and Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code (New York), or any other personal property registry system; and (iii) those Claims listed on Schedule C hereto (all of which are collectively referred to as the ""Encumbrances", which term shall not include the permitted encumbrances, easements and restrictive covenants listed on Schedule D) and,"), and for greater certainty, this Court orders that all of the Encumbrances affecting or relating to the Purchased Assets are hereby expunged and discharged as against the Purchased Assets upon delivery of the Receiver's Certificate.

&lt;sup>4</sup> To allow this Order to be free standing (and not require reference to the Court record and/or the Sale Agreement), it may be preferable that the Purchased Assets be specifically described in a Schedule.

&lt;sup>5</sup> The "Claims" being vested out may, in some cases, include ownership claims, where ownership is disputed and the dispute is brought to the attention of the Court. Such ownership claims would, in that case, still continue as against the net proceeds from the sale of the claimed asset. Similarly, other rights, titles or interests could also be vested out, if the Court is advised what rights are being affected, and the appropriate persons are served. It is the Subcommittee's view that a non-specific vesting out of "rights, titles and interests" is vague and therefore undesirable.

- 45. THIS COURT ORDERS that for the purposes of determining the nature and priority of Claims, the net proceeds<sup>7</sup> from the sale of the Purchased Assets shall stand in the place and stead of the Purchased Assets, and that from and after the delivery of the Receiver's Certificate all Claims and Encumbrances shall attach to the net proceeds from the sale of the Purchased Assets with the same priority as they had with respect to the Purchased Assets immediately prior to the sale<sup>8</sup>, as if the Purchased Assets had not been sold and remained in the possession or control of the person having that possession or control immediately prior to the sale.
