2. THIS COURT ORDERS that Glenn Page and 2658658 Ontario Inc. (the “Injunction Parties”), and their servants, employees, agents, assigns, officers, directors as well as any other person or entity acting on their behalf or at their direction or, in conjunction with any of them, and any and all persons with notice of this injunction, are restrained from directly or indirectly, by any means whatsoever:

- (a) selling, removing, dissipating, alienating, transferring, assigning, encumbering, or similarly dealing with any assets of the Injunction Parties, including real property, bank accounts, insurance policies, annuities and other assets held by them or by any other person or entity on their behalf, wherever situate, without leave of this Court;

For the purpose of this order, the Injunction Parties’ assets include any asset to which any of them may have the power, directly or indirectly, to dispose of or deal with as if it were their own. Each of the Injunction Parties are to be regarded as having such power if a third party holds or controls the assets in accordance with any of their direct or indirect instructions.

8. THIS COURT ORDERS that if the provision of any of this information is likely to incriminate the Injunction Parties or Cox, they may be entitled to refuse to provide it, but are recommended to take legal advice before refusing to provide the information. Wrongful refusal to provide the information referred to in paragraphs 5, 6 and 7 herein is contempt of court and may render the Injunction Parties and/or Cox liable to be imprisoned, fined, or have their assets seized.
