

Terms and Conditions

You agree not to record, screenshot or copy any of the material in any way. You hereby acknowledge that any of the material, copyright and all intellectual property rights relating to any of KPMG Academy trainings, as well as logos, graphics and associated website are vested in KPMG Cyprus and no part may be copied or reproduced in any way.

Cancellations made within five (5) working days prior to the commencement date of each training will not be accepted, and the fees will not be refunded. In case a training is part of an offer, the provided discount will be deducted from the refund total amount. This applies for paid events only.

KPMG reserves the right to change the date or time of a training or cancel the training due to low enrollment or for any other unforeseen reason, which makes the conduct of the training impractical.

In the event the Human Resource Development Authority (HRDA) determines that a company or one or more of its participants do not meet the subsidy criteria, the full cost, including VAT, shall be borne entirely by the participant(s) or their company.

If you do not settle your debt to KPMG prior to the commencement day of the training, your participation cannot be guaranteed. We therefore consider that by submitting your registration form you commit to settling your debt before the commencement date of the training.

KPMG Limited is committed to ensure the privacy of individuals in relation to personal data and keep it confidential.

For information on how we use personal data please view our Privacy Statement.

You agree to ensure that all participants registered by you are aware of these Terms and Conditions of KPMG Cyprus and that they are bound by them.

You are deemed to have read, understood and agreed to these terms and conditions as well as the use of personal data, as explained in KPMG's Privacy Statement before submitting the registration form.
