Benefits in Kind

Benefit	Taxable amount
Car ¹	Calculation based on the CO2 emissions and the list price of the car.
Fuel ¹	£27,800 multiplied by the appropriate CO2 emissions percentage
Accommodation	Cash equivalent
Use of an asset	20% of market value (or cost to employer if higher)
Other facilities	Cost to employer

¹ Benefits in kind in respect of cars provided by an employer to an employee for private use will primarily be calculated based on CO2 emissions and the list price of the car. The benefit in respect of fuel will also be aligned with the car's CO2 emissions.

Exempt Benefits

General Exemptions

The first £600 of general benefits in kind provided by an employer to an employee in a tax year will be exempt from income tax. This exemption does not apply to accommodation and associated expenses, or bicycle, car, or fuel benefits.

Specific Exemptions

- Accommodation used solely for duties of employment.
- Car parking space at or near place of work.
- Medical insurance.

Specific Exemptions (continued)

- Provision of nursery or crèche facilities.
- Christmas party costing not more than £100 per head.
- Provision of a personal computer to an employee for use at home not exceeding £1,000.
- Provision of season tickets or multi-journey tickets to and from work on normal scheduled public transport, or similar coach services.
- Provision of bicycles and certain electric bikes and related safety equipment for use between an employee's home and their place of work up to a maximum of £1,200 in any 3-year period. For an individual who has not received any other general benefits in the tax year the maximum value of a benefit relating to the provision of an electric bike that may be exempt from a benefit in kind charge is £1,800.
