	Is voluntary registration for VAT/GST and other indirect taxes possible for an overseas company (e.g. if the annual turnover is below the relevant VAT/GST and other indirect taxes registration threshold)?	No, foreign companies must have a permanent establishment to be registered for VAT.
	Does an overseas company need to appoint a fiscal representative?	Yes, for VAT, a fiscal representative is mandatory.
	Which forms and supporting documentation does an overseas company need to submit for VAT/GST and other indirect tax registrations?	Not applicable.
	Is grouping* for VAT/GST and other indirect taxes possible?	No.

* By 'grouping' we mean: either a consolidation mechanism between taxpayers belonging to the same group (payment and refund are compensated but taxpayers remain distinct) or a fiction for VAT/GST purposes (several taxpayers are regarded as a single taxpayer).

VAT/GST compliance	How frequently are VAT/GST and other indirect tax returns submitted?	VAT: monthly.  Selective consumption tax: monthly, except for fuels, which are declared weekly.
	What are the exchange rate rules in your country?	The tax rule on the exchange rate provides that the value of transactions in foreign currencies agreed between parties will be converted into local currency at the exchange rate of the buyer or seller on the open market at the close of the banking day (on which the operation took place, depending on whether it was a sale or a purchase, respectively).  The import and export operations will apply the exchange rate of that seller's and buyer's market respectively. Foreign currency transactions should be converted into local currency based on the rate of the open market at the close of the day of the transaction.
VAT/GST recovery	Can an overseas company recover VAT/GST and other indirect taxes if it is not registered for VAT/GST and other indirect taxes locally?	No.
	Are there any exemptions with the right to recover or deduct input VAT?	Exporters have the right to recover VAT incurred on local purchases needed for the manufacturing of goods exported overseas.
	Are there any restrictions to the deduction of input VAT?	Yes, there are restrictions to the deduction of input VAT for individuals. Individuals only can deduct the following items: — health expenses — professional training — public services (electric power, etc.) — office lease, repair or improvement — furniture, professional equipment, tools, office supplies and professional representation expenses — clothing for the professional practice — cars.
Invoices	Is a business required to issue tax invoices?	Yes.
	Is it possible/mandatory to issue invoices electronically?	No.
	Is it possible for the vendor to issue an invoice, i.e. is self-billing possible?	Self-invoices ( autofactura ) can be issued to support services rendered by providers (individuals) who are not obliged to register as taxpayers and when payments do not exceed the minimum monthly wage (approximately USD355 according to the May 2017 exchange rate).

Audits	Do tax audits take place on a regular basis?	No, not on a regular basis. Lately, there have been tax audits focused on exporter companies mainly to verify the validity of their VAT credit amounts, considering that exporters are the only ones allowed to recover VAT credits. The competent authority is the tax office (Subsecretaría de Estado de Tributación). Taxpayers with an annual turnover exceeding 6 billion Paraguayan guaraní (PYG), approximately USD1,043,488 (January 2017 exchange rate), are obliged to have an external tax audit performed by external auditors. The tax report issued by the external auditors is filed to the tax office by the taxpayer.
	Are audits done electronically in your country (e-audit)? If so, what system is in use?	No.
	What penalties can arise from non-compliance?	The main penalty is the refusal from the tax office to refund VAT credits to exporters that did not document their credits connected to export transactions accurately. The tax office can also open an administrative legal process to investigate the compliance of the company's tax obligations. For all kinds of non-compliance (of formal and substantial obligations of all taxes, not only indirect ones), the tax authority is allowed to deny the authorization of printed invoices (timbrado), preventing the taxpayer from invoicing its operations.
Special indirect tax rules	Are there any special rules for the sale of a company by one taxpayer to another where VAT is not due on the sale?	When a company is transferred and the acquirer takes over the existing liability at the time of the transfer, the taxable base will be the sum of the agreed price, plus the existing liability, which will constitute the total tax price of the transaction. The assets that constitute the transferred asset must be apportioned between taxed and exempt. The contracts of transfer of companies must expressly establish the price and other conditions of the operation, stipulating that the price established therein must be added in a apportioned manner to the VAT.

Special indirect tax rules (continued)	Are there unique, specific indirect tax rules that you would not expect to find in 'standard' VAT jurisdictions?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>— Regime of tourism: a tax settlement regime that levies the import of goods sold in the country exclusively to non-domiciled individuals.</li> <li>— Maquila: a local company undertakes the production of goods and services by transforming, elaborating, repairing or assembling foreign raw material and inputs temporarily imported into Paraguay for exportation purposes. The local company (maquiladora) pays a 1% tax on the local value added to the products (value of raw materials and other inputs purchased in the country, as well as all production costs — electricity, water, transport, salaries and fees). Tax recovery of VAT under this regime is allowed.</li> <li>— Temporary admission (established by the customs law): the presence of foreign goods in the customs territory for a particular purpose with full or partial suspension of payment of customs taxes and VAT.</li> <li>— Law 60/90: aimed at promoting investments. It grants the beneficiary with the exemption of all taxes (including VAT) on transactions such as capital stock increases; capital contributions in movable goods, immovable properties, intangible assets and transferred rights; issuance, purchase and sale of bonds, debentures and other debt securities; VAT on imports of capital goods for the initial installation; loans, credits and guarantees thereon; overseas remittance of interests, commissions and capital obtained from loans of USD5 million or more; overseas remittance of dividends and profits from approved investment projects of USD5 million or more; leases, royalties, rights for the use of trademarks and patents, industrial drawings, models and other forms of technology transfer.</li> <li>— Entry of goods into free zones: entry of goods from third countries or from national territory to the free zone is exempted from all national, regional (departmental) or municipal tax, excluding service rates.</li> </ul>
	Does a reverse charge mechanism apply for goods or services?	No.
	Are there indirect tax incentives available (e.g. reduced rates, tax holidays)?	No.
Rulings	Are rulings and decisions issued by the tax authorities publicly available?	Yes, they can be found on the tax office website: www.set.gov.py .
