

KPMG Appoints New Senior Partner

Mr. Anthony K Sarpong

Mr. Anthony K Sarpong has been appointed as the Senior Partner of KPMG in Ghana, with additional jurisdiction over the firm's business in Sierra Leone, Liberia and The Gambia. Mr. Sarpong's appointment takes effect from 1 October 2019. He succeeds Nii Amanor Dadoo who retires from the firm on 30 September 2019 after six (6) years at the helm and forty (40) years of impactful service to KPMG.

In his new role, Mr. Sarpong will take the reins of the largest professional services firm in Ghana and will lead a team of about 400 skilled professionals working in the firm's audit, tax and advisory businesses.

Mr. Sarpong is currently a Partner and Head of Audit in KPMG. He doubles as the sector lead for KPMG's Financial Services line of business and is also the Risk Management Partner.

Mr. Sarpong is a Chartered Accountant with over 21 years of experience in audit and advisory services across a number of sectors including Financial Services; Consumer and Industrial Markets (CIM); and Telecom, Media and Technology. He leads some of the firm's largest and complex cross-functional engagements.

He is a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants, Ghana (ICAG); Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nigeria (ICAN) and Ghana Association of Restructuring and Insolvency Advisors (GARIA). He is also a member of the University of Ghana Business School's Advisory Board, Vice President of STOBA, Chairman of Mary Mother of Good Counsel Catholic Parish (MMGCCP) Education Endowment Fund and the Ag. Chairman of ENACTUS, Ghana.

Mr. Sarpong holds a Master of Science (MSc) in Financial Risk Management from London Metropolitan University, UK; Post-Graduate Diploma in Business Administration from the University of Manchester, UK; and a First Class Honours in Business Administration (Accounting option) from the University of Ghana. In addition, he holds a professional certificate in Taxation from the Chartered Institute of Taxation, Ghana and a certificate in investment and securities from the Ghana Stock Exchange.

Mr. Sarpong is an affable and a solution focused individual. He believes in leadership and empowerment as means to identify, develop and unleash the potential of people. He joined KPMG as a trainee accountant in 1997 and rose through the ranks to be admitted into partnership of the firm in 2006.

Nii Amanor Dodoo described Anthony as “an astute and dependable leader, a professional who will provide the continued impetus for KPMG to remain the clear choice, make our clients see the difference in us; develop and train our people to continue being extraordinary; and retain the levels of trust that our communities deserve to have in us. He has the breadth and depth of proven experience, leading large teams to deliver on complex projects, and the skills and experience to guide the firm as we work shoulder to shoulder with our clients. The Partners and staff of KPMG have every confidence in him to take the firm to the next expected level.” Commenting on his appointment, Mr. Sarpong paid tribute to Nii Amanor for leading the growth and resurgence of KPMG during his tenure as the Senior Partner. He further acknowledged the great heights to which the current leadership has raised the firm. His priorities will be to sustain the good legacy of the firm and build a trustworthy firm anchored on public trust, growth, people and leadership development, market focus and service excellence, innovation, operational efficiency and inclusiveness.

About KPMG

KPMG has been operating in Ghana since 1929, providing multidisciplinary professional services that spans industry sectors and national boundaries to both local and international organisations. KPMG serves a wide range of clients from globally listed companies to domestic entities through to family owned businesses. The firm serves Ghana's multi-faceted economy including the Financial Services; Consumer Markets; Manufacturing; Technology, Media and Telecommunications; Energy and Natural Resources; and Infrastructure, Governance and Healthcare sectors.

KPMG is a global network of professional firms providing audit, tax and advisory services with over 207,050 people in more than 700 cities in 153 countries worldwide.

KPMG in Ghana is a partnership established under Ghanaian law, a member firm of the KPMG network of independent member firms affiliated with KPMG International Cooperative (“KPMG International”), a Swiss entity.

kpmg.com/socialmedia

kpmg.com/app

© 2019 KPMG, a Ghanaian partnership and a member firm of the KPMG network of independent member firms affiliated with KPMG International Cooperative (“KPMG International”), a Swiss entity. All rights reserved. Printed in Ghana.

The KPMG name and logo are registered trademarks or trademarks of KPMG International. The information contained herein is of a general nature and is not intended to address the circumstances of any particular individual or entity. Although we endeavour to provide accurate and timely information, there can be no guarantee that such information is accurate as of the date it is received or that it will continue to be accurate in the future. No one should act on such information without appropriate professional advice after a thorough examination of the particular situation.