Greater flexibility with your application

Our team of scientific experts assist with drafting the technical aspects of the grant application documents and drawdown reports, ensuring they deliver a high degree flexibility to accommodate potential changes in research priorities.

Our holistic approach

Our approach to R&D Tax Credits and RD&I Grant drawdowns streamlines the process for clients who are availing of both incentives by capturing the required data once.

Maximise your grant while minimising the time

Our application and drawdown processes will maximise your grant while minimising the time inputs from both your engineering and finance teams.

Our services include:

Our integrated tax incentives team provide service offerings in the following four areas:

1. R&D Tax Credits.
2. R&D Grants.
3. Knowledge Development Box.
4. Capital Allowances, provided by experienced quantity surveyors.

We have found from our experience that it is advantageous to have one team oversee these incentives to maximise efficiency and identify synergies. The service offerings truly go hand in hand; for example, where we assist companies preparing R&D tax credit claims, this information can be utilised for the Grant drawdown submissions.
