Tax

Over the years, the banking and financial services space has undergone a major overhaul due to evolving regulations. Needless to say, the tax and regulatory regime has tried to keep pace with these changes as laws have become more dynamic. The taxmen have been vigilant to preserve their tax base and the regulators continue to fulfill their obligations by taking stringent action against erring entities. Tax and regulatory considerations have gained unprecedented importance and have become a boardroom subject. In the midst of these changes, it is imminent that businesses take a holistic view of their status-quo, carefully examine their tax positions and duly comply with the various regulations.
