Health – Translation into the Khmer language of all packages and labels of food products

Ministry of Health (“MoH”) – Notification No. 2772 dated 22 May 2020 on translation into the Khmer language of all packages and labels of food products

To strengthen food hygiene and safety and to effectively implement the contents of Prakas No. 649 dated 4 August 2017 on the issuance of Free Sales Certificates (FSC) and Health Certificates of Food Products (HCFP), the MoH issued Notification No. 2772 to require all companies, handicrafts and factories to translate the packages and labels of food products into the Khmer language in order to apply for the FSC and HCFP with the MoH.

This notification shall be effective from 01 July 2020 onwards.
