

KPMG Corporate Services (Cayman) Ltd.

Licensed and regulated by the Cayman Islands Monetary Authority, KPMG Corporate Services (Cayman) Ltd. provides tailored corporate administration services to Cayman Islands entities, in a world of increasing complexities and evolving regulatory requirements.

Working with KPMG's experienced professionals, we offer a comprehensive range of services, from the formation of new companies to maintaining registered office and corporate records. We leverage our access to the KPMG Global network to assist clients with their corporate requirements, including tax, accounting, regulatory and legal advice.

Our clients have the assurance that their company administration is professionally and efficiently managed, allowing them to focus their attention on their core business needs.

How we can support you:

Formation: KPMG specializes in the formation of Cayman Islands entities in response to client's requirements, including international reorganizations, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and investment vehicles. Our team focuses on partnering with our clients, providing a responsive service with the preparation and filing of their incorporation documents.

Registered Office Services: We provide ongoing corporate administration services to KPMG clients, including registered office services and the maintenance of corporate documents, records and registers. We assist with company searches, providing certified copies of corporate documents, as well as issuing certificates of good standing and certificates of incumbency.

Regulatory Compliance and Filings: Working in parallel with our specialists, we support clients to ensure they meet ongoing legal and regulatory requirements, including annual and regulatory filings, board and shareholder meetings, and reporting obligations.

KPMG's Global Managed Services: Tailored corporate administration provides an opportunity for the Global KPMG network to expand its managed service offering to international clients, benefitting from cross referrals, including accounting, tax and legal, regulatory, advisory and transactional services.

Whether your challenges stem from coordinating a complex group, managing a major regulatory development, or ensuring your company compliance obligations are met in a more effective way, KPMG Corporate Services have solutions that support you.

Our expert corporate services team has an in-depth understanding of corporate structures and Cayman Islands legal and regulatory requirements, with access to the best in-class capabilities of the KPMG international network to support your local and global needs.

Please contact us to discuss any corporate services you require, or any corporate and regulatory challenges you may be facing.

"Solutions, reimagined."
