

People Transformation

KPMG in Malaysia

As organizations work through the talent revolution resulting from technological and AI advancements, geopolitical tensions, climate change, and other changes which have led to profound shifts in the global business landscape, people transformation remains crucial to help organizations adapt and excel in this new world.

Prioritizing PEOPLE in their transformation journeys involves empowering them through skills development, well-being and organizational culture, enabling them to realize their full potential to innovate, adapt and sustain growth in the changing business landscape. This, in turn, contributes to the organization's overall success and resilience in navigating challenges and transformations.

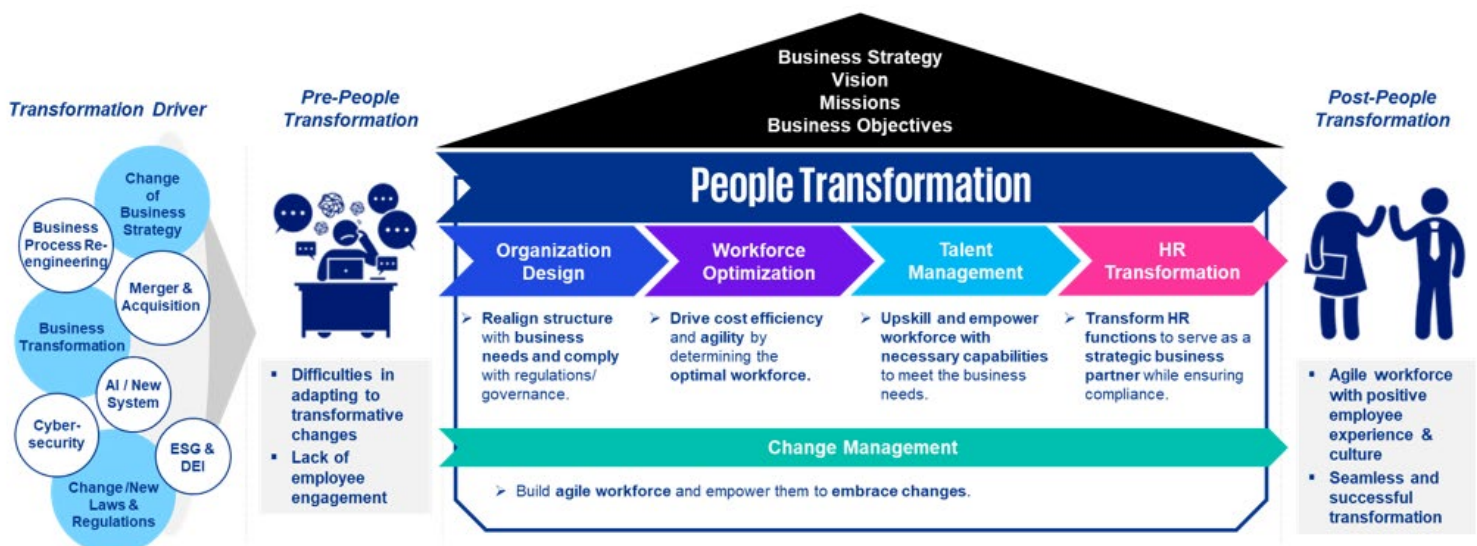

62% of senior leaders often undervalue the people perspective in the transformation

84% of line leaders reported the "people" are often neglected in the transformation plan.
