

Foong Mun Kong now KPMG Malaysia managing partner, Johan Idris its chairman

theedgemaalaysia.com

KPMG MALAYSIA

Foong Mun Kong (left) and Datuk Johan Idris.

KUALA LUMPUR (Jan 2): Foong Mun Kong has officially assumed the role of managing partner at KPMG Malaysia, effective Jan 1, 2025, according to a statement on Thursday.

This follows a transition from Datuk Johan Idris' tenure as managing partner, who now takes on the role of non-executive chairman, read the statement.

Foong brings over 30 years of experience in audit and assurance, having previously served as the firm's head of audit.

Beyond his contributions to the firm, he currently serves as vice-president of the Malaysian Institute of Certified Public Accountants (MICPA), a council member of the Malaysian Institute of Accountants, and is a member of the MFRS Application and Implementation Committee of the Malaysian Accounting Standards Board (MASB).

"This transition heralds an exciting new chapter for KPMG in Malaysia. Building on the solid foundation we have laid together and guided by an unwavering commitment to quality and trust, I am confident that KPMG will continue to scale new heights of success. I look forward to continuing to support this journey in my new role as non-executive chairman," said Johan.

Commenting on his new role, Foong said, "It is an honour to lead KPMG in Malaysia alongside this exceptional team of leaders. Together, we have the building blocks in place to uphold the quality, integrity, and trust that define us and shape a future-ready KPMG — to deliver long-term value and positive impact to the clients and communities we serve."