

Foong Mun Kong is new managing partner at KPMG

PETALING JAYA: Professional services firm KPMG in Malaysia has appointed Foong Mun Kong as its new managing partner, effective today.

According to a statement issued by KPMG, Foong succeeds Datuk Johan Idris, who has transitioned to the role of non-executive chairman.

Foong, who was previously the firm's head of audit, currently serves as vice-president of the Malaysian Institute of Certified Public Accountants, is a council member of the Malaysian Institute of Accountants, and is a member of the MFRS Application and Implementation Committee of the Malaysian Accounting Standards Board.

KPMG said the new leadership will position KPMG in Malaysia well to navigate future challenges and further strengthen its market presence.

"It is an honor to lead KPMG in Malaysia alongside this exceptional team of leaders," said Foong
