flash International Executive Alert

A Publication for Global Mobility and Tax Professionals by KPMG's International Executive Services Practice

KPMG LLP (U.S.) invites you to attend a one-hour live webcast on Thursday, September 20, 2012 from 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. EDT (GMT -5) which will cover how international assignment programs may be affected by U.S. health-care legislation – the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act and Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010 – much of which becomes effective in 2013. KPMG professionals specializing in global mobility, international tax, and compensation and benefits will address the following topics:

- Medicare tax on high wage earners
- Medicare tax on unearned income
- Other individual tax provisions of the health-care reform legislation
- Employer “pay or play” rules on providing minimum essential health coverage
- Prohibition on “discriminatory” health plans
- Employer reporting requirements
- International assignment policy and implementation issues.

There will be time at the end of the program for questions and answers (“Q&A”).
