Could you tell us how “Allocation to registered organizations” works?

If you do nothing, your tax utilized by the government as it likes. You have change to allocate 1.5% of your income tax to registered organization you like. It could be a organization for supporting disables, environment protection activists, supporting refuses from Ukraine, etc. Even you can allocate more specifically for example to a specific disabled person in a registered organization mentioning his/her name in your tax return.

Thank you
