

Keep tabs on evolving threats

Stay ahead in an expanding risk landscape with Managed Threat Intelligence

Actionable intelligence at your fingertips

Stay ahead of emerging threats

As digital transformation accelerates, so do new avenues of cyber attacks.

The rise in volume and sophistication of threat actors' tactics can make it difficult for businesses to stay ahead of emerging threats.

KPMG in Singapore's Managed Threat Intelligence service provides the information and capabilities you need to continuously monitor risks, respond and refine your defences.

An intelligence-led approach to cyber risk management

We sift through raw data, conduct incident triage and report threats to your enterprise, so you are free to focus on what matters: your business.

How our threat intelligence works

Areas we cover

When assessing the potential threats and risks that your enterprise faces, it's important to know and address your weaknesses beyond your external attack surface.

External attack surface monitoring – exposed domains, shadow endpoints, VPN gateways, phishing risks, exposed admin panels.

01 Compromised systems

We monitor individuals and groups offering compromised and infected systems for sale on the dark web including botnets and VPN infrastructure.

02 Extracted credentials

We track extracted or stolen credentials from compromised systems sold on the dark web for various malicious purposes, such as to gain initial access to systems and to perform phishing attacks.

03 Ransomware leak sites, chat groups and forums

We actively monitor the dark web by crawling and indexing various dark web forums, marketplaces, leak sites and communication channels where cybercriminals buy and/or sell tools, credentials and exploits, and discuss potential victims of their next attack.
