Interesting global deal

Pfizer to acquire Arena Pharmaceuticals at 100% premium

Pfizer and Arena Pharmaceuticals have entered into a definitive agreement under which Pfizer will acquire Arena. According to the terms of the agreement, Pfizer will acquire all the outstanding shares of Arena for $100 per share (€87) in an all-cash transaction for a total equity value of approximately $6.7 billion (€5.9 billion).

Arena Pharmaceuticals is a clinical stage company developing innovative potential therapies for the treatment of several immuno-inflammatory diseases.

The U.S. drugmaker Pfizer thus continues its strategy to acquire companies developing promising drugs. In November the company acquired immuno-oncology company Trillium Therapeutics in a deal worth $2.22 billion (€2 billion) and strengthened its portfolio of blood cancer treatments.

Penta on healthcare shopping. It will control a private hospital in Petržalka

Earlier this year, Penta, an investment group, took full ownership of the healthcare provider Cinre, located in its ProCare Medissimo hospital in Bratislava. Later, it plans to move the center to its new hospital to be opened at the end of 2022 in Bratislava's Bory.

It used to own just over 50% of its shares and the remaining shares were owned by doctor Ivan Vulev. The center treats cardiovascular patients. Cinre and Cinre Property had €47m sales last year and posted a net profit of €1.3m.
