Where do we process your personal data?

We are processing your personal data for here mentioned purposes mostly in the European Union. However, within processing operations listed in this Notice, personal data are occasionally also transferred (except processing data within EU) to a third country. Cross-border transfer takes place in connection with internal controls, the subject of which is internal risk assessment and quality assurance and compliance with professional standards in the provision of services. Appropriate safeguards for transfer of personal data to third countries are ensured in the form of standard data protection clauses according Article 46 of GDPR.

Which categories of personal data are we processing?

We are processing common categories of personal data (e.g. name, surname, email, job, employer and other).

How do we process your personal data?

Processing of your personal data can be manual or automated, when your personal data is processed in our information systems or information systems of our Processors.

Your personal data are processed only by selected employees of KPMG member firms. In this relation we take care that only trained and selected employees have access to your personal data and they fulfil obligations of confidentiality in relation to all the data (personal or other) that they learned during the performance of their work.

Personal data are not subject to automated individual decision-making, including profiling.

What are your rights in the data protection area?

Under relevant data protection legislation (unless generally binding legal regulations do not stipulate otherwise), you have a right to:

- information about processing of your personal data;
- access to your personal data, including the right to obtain copy of your personal data processed by us;
- portability of the data which you have provided to us (in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format) and which we are processing based on your consent by automated means; you have the right to transmit those data to another Controller (if such transfer is technically feasible);
- rectification of your wrong, inaccurate or outdated personal data. When accuracy of your data is questionable you can request restriction of its processing until we will be able to check its accuracy;
- restriction of processing of personal data under condition that the personal data will be stored but not processed;
- erasure ('right to be forgotten') of your personal data in cases specifically allowed by data protection legislation, e.g.:
 - your personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
 - you would object to processing of personal data processed on the basis of our legitimate interest and we would not demonstrate necessary legitimate reasons for our processing that would outweigh your interests and rights and freedoms;

- any time contact our Data Protection Officer by using any communication means mentioned in this document. You can also contact the Data Protection Officer in case you think that we breach your rights under data protection legislation;
- when you believe that in relation to processing of your personal data, your rights were breached or that you were directly affected by such breach, you have a right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority (Úrad na ochranu osobných údajov Slovenskej republiky, adresa Hraničná 4826/12, 820 07 Bratislava – Ružinov, tel. number: +421 /2/ 3231 3214; mail: statny.dozor@pdp.gov.sk, <https://dataprotection.gov.sk/uouu/>) or to a relevant court.

What is your right to object?

You have right to object any time to the processing of your personal data, which is performed on the basis of our legitimate interest. Objection could be lodged to our Data Protection Officer personally or by using any of our listed contacts.

When we consider that our legitimate interest prevails over your interest or rights and freedoms, we can continue to process your personal data. When your objection will be appropriate, we stop processing your personal data for this purpose.
