Digital transformation affects us all

It is about data – the cornerstone of the radical re-thinking required for digital transformation is the intelligent management and protection of the data being collected throughout the enterprise.

It is about employees, citizens, customers, stakeholders – enabling and serving them in the best possible way by leveraging the right technologies and fostering a collaborative and empowered culture.

And it is about building a more sustainable and resilient environment – maximizing the opportunities brought by new technologies and data-driven insights that allow us to support our wider ambitions towards a more sustainable world.

KPMG Powered reduces time to value

Powered Enterprise is an outcome-driven functional transformation solution that combines deep functional knowledge, proven delivery capability and cloud technology to drive sustainable change, rising performance and lasting value.

-  Faster delivery
-  Lower cost of delivery
-  Increased certainty of outcome
-  Reduced risk
-  Early benefits realization

Tap straight into advanced organizational design, leading technologies, processes and operating models that lead to better outcomes

Helps speed up lengthy cycles of process design and alignment with ServiceNow out-of-the-box capabilities

ServiceNow capabilities – Driving workflow and transformation
