KPMG are passionate about the purpose of this Forum in reflection of our Values:

Diversity and talent shortages, especially of female talent, are becoming increasingly important issues within the Aerospace, Defence and Intelligence (ADI) sector. We believe there is the need for a mixed gender forum that seeks to be inclusive, engaging, and an enjoyable opportunity to meet with others from across ADI and that includes the promotion of pioneering and prominent female speakers. We are passionate about bringing everyone together across ADI to explore women's contribution to the development of the sector and encourage careers in ADI that span a lifetime.
