

Consumer PUISE: 2023

Two-thirds of consumers plan to reduce their non-essential spending in 2023. Within this challenging environment, where should Consumer and Retail businesses be focusing in order to find opportunities for growth?

of consumers are feeling less cite that an increase in their said they would sign-up to

of consumers said they will

How are consumers feeling?

financially secure heading into 2023 vs the start of 2022

essential costs (energy, food etc) will cause them to reduce their non-essential spending

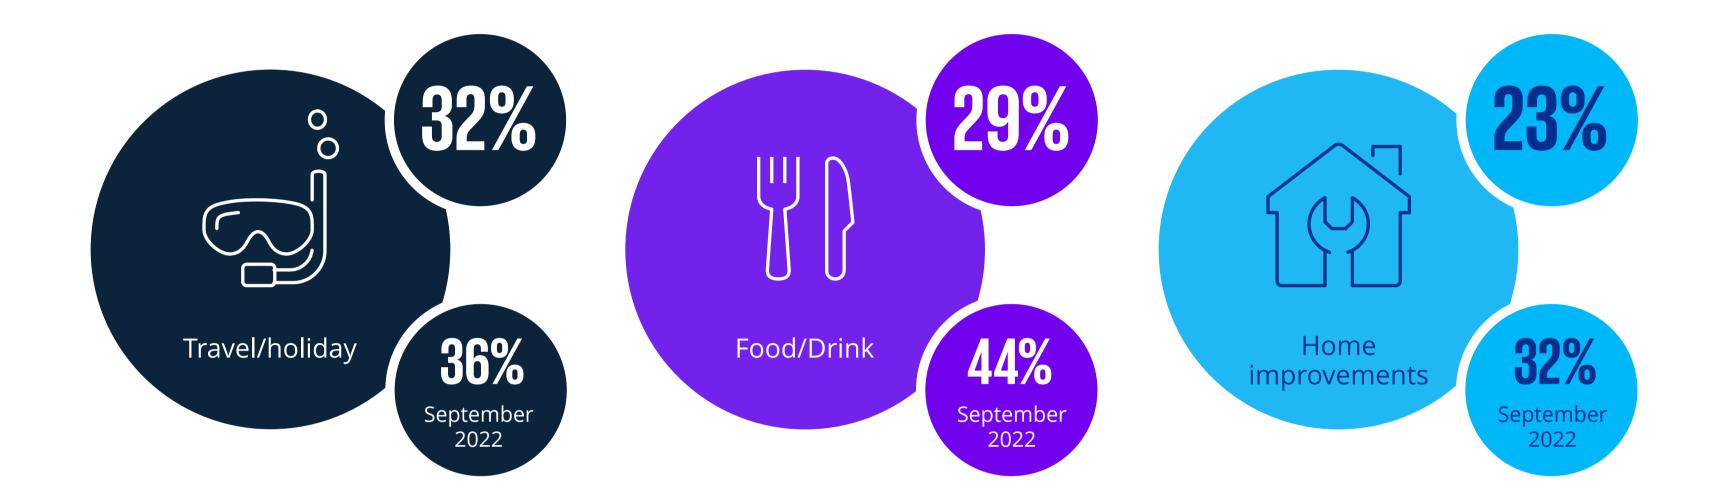

retailer loyalty schemes

be able to increase their non-essential spending levels

What do consumers say they are cutting back on in 2023?

What do they expect to be spending more on?

What's influencing their purchasing decisions?

As seen previously throughout 2022, price and quality remain the overwhelming top 2 purchase considerations for consumers, with sustainability and convenience also playing a key role.

December

Shift in gift buying plans

Whilst price will be the main purchasing driver of goods, consumers are still searching for quality gifts that either bring practical help to the recipient or give them a treat experience that brings a break from the stresses of day to day life.

What does this mean for consumer business leaders?

Be customer-centric

In these times of uncertainty and with consumers changing their opinion on spending every month, understanding your customers will be critical.

View more

Reshape your costs to find growth

Fundamental shifts in customer values mean your business can no longer rely on traditional sales functions. Instead, businesses need a new approach to sales and customer relationship management with insights, connection and transformation.

Digitise your business

The emerging new customer is accelerating change - they seek a seamless digital experience and additional value from every transaction. We can provide a fresh perspective for your customer experience and redirect your focus on where it needs to be, rather than where it is.

Our research shows that only 40% of promotional activity is effective. Suppliers and retailers can unlock a sales and margin uplift by working on their pricing and promotion strategy together.

View more

Linda J Ellett Partner, UK Head of Consumer Markets, Leisure & Retail KPMG in the UK

Email

Paul Martin UK Head of Retail KPMG in the UK

Email

Will Hawkley Global Head of Leisure and Hospitality KPMG in the UK

Email

KPMG surveyed 3000 consumers from across the UK at the beginning of December 2022 about their spending and saving plans for the coming year.

The information contained herein is of a general nature and is not intended to address the circumstances of any particular individual or entity. Although we endeavour to provide accurate and timely information, there can be no guarantee that such information is accurate as of the date it is received or that it will continue to be accurate in the future. No one should act on such information without appropriate professional advice after a thorough examination of the particular situation.

© 2023 KPMG LLP, a UK limited liability partnership and a member firm of the KPMG global organisation of independent member firms affiliated with KPMG International Limited, a private English company limited by guarantee. All rights reserved.

The KPMG name and logo are trademarks used under license by the independent member firms of the KPMG global organisation.