KPMG report: Tax incentives scheduled to expire at end of 2016

Almost 30 temporary tax incentives are scheduled to expire at the end of 2016.

Taxpayers need to be aware that, although these incentives may be available for qualifying 2016 activity, there is risk that some or all these incentives might not be available next year. Taxpayers need to monitor future legislative activity to see if any of these incentives are extended.

This report highlights tax incentives that are scheduled to expire at the end of 2016 and makes observations about the prospects for future “extenders” legislation.
