Legislative update: Finance Chairman Hatch requests ideas, feedback on tax reform

U.S. Senate Finance Committee Chairman Orrin Hatch (R-UT) today requested from tax stakeholders ideas, proposals, and feedback on improving the U.S. tax system.

In a Finance Committee release, Chairman Hatch is seeking recommendations about how to:

- Provide tax relief to middle-class individuals and families through reforms to the individual income tax system
- Strengthen businesses—both large and small—by lowering tax rates and broadening the relevant tax base in order to put the economy on a better growth path and create jobs
- Remove impediments and disincentives for savings and investment that exist in the current tax system
- Update the U.S. international tax system in order to make the United States more competitive in the global economy and preserve the U.S. tax base
