Legislative update: House passes nuclear power tax credit, mobile workforce bills

The U.S. House of Representatives this evening passed, under a “suspension of the rules” procedure that requires the support of at least two-thirds of the voting members, two tax-related bills.

- H.R. 1551 [PDF 53 KB] would modify the tax credit for production from advanced nuclear power facilities.
- H.R. 1393 [PDF 47 KB] the Mobile Workforce State Income Tax Simplification Act of 2017, would implement what are referred to as “mobile workforce” measures by limiting the authority of the states to tax certain income of employees for employment duties performed in other states.

With this evening’s action by the House, the bills now go to the Senate for its consideration. The timing of any possible Senate action is unclear.

KPMG observation

The mobile workforce bill is similar to legislation (H.R. 2315) that the House passed last year. Read TaxNewsFlash-Legislative Updates.

Similar legislation (S. 540) has been introduced in the Senate and has 39 bi-partisan co-sponsors.
