United Kingdom: Issued an update to the Reportable Jurisdictions List

On 02 May 2023, His Majesty's Revenue and Customs ("HMRC") of the United Kingdom issued an update to the International Exchange of Information Manual. Kenya, Moldova and Uganda have been removed from the reportable jurisdiction list, meaning that financial accounts held by tax residents of these countries should not be included in the reports sent to HMRC by 31 May 2023. However, as this change has been made so close to the reporting deadline, HMRC understands that Financial Institutions (FIs) may already have compiled their reports and may not be able to remove such accounts in the given time. FIs should not delay reporting, rather HMRC will remove any data related to these accounts before exchanging information with reportable jurisdictions.

HMRC further notes that while Kenya, Moldova and Uganda are not reportable jurisdictions for the 2022 reporting year, arrangements remain in place with these jurisdictions.
