Finance, Ways and Means chairs and ranking members release discussion draft of Secure Act 2.0 technical corrections and clarifications

The chairmen and ranking members of the tax-writing committees of the U.S. Congress—along with the chairmen and ranking members of the House Committee on Education and the Workforce and the Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions—today released a discussion draft for public review and comment of legislation containing technical corrections and other clarifications with respect to the SECURE Act 2.0 (signed into law on December 29, 2022, as part of the “Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2023” (H.R. 2617)).
