KPMG report: Revenue recognition standard, Q&As on real estate

The new revenue recognition standard, and its 2018 effective date, has implications for real estate transactions.

As companies delve into the details of the new revenue standard, they are finding that its effect will be significant. In this report, some common questions about how the standard will change current practice are addressed in a series of "questions and answers" (Q&As) that follow the steps of the revenue recognition model.
