

Transform your finance practices.

For what comes next. KPMG Powered Enterprise | Finance

Transform your finance organization with KPMG insights and cloud technology.

Aging technology, new business strategies, cost pressures — the business world is changing. The pace is quickening and finance organizations must deliver the information needed to stay competitive.

KPMG Powered Finance solutions are designed to create more agile finance organizations without the burden of a long implementation timeline. They offer the flexibility to adapt and grow in ways that some traditional financial systems may not.

KPMG Powered Finance offers a pre-built, next-generation finance function for clients, optimized for leading cloud software. You get access to broad-ranging value that comes from cloud-enabled technology, combined with KPMG member firms' expertise across management consulting, tax and audit. Together, this leads to an approach designed for your unique enterprise without the traditional burden of heavy customization.

Make a step change in providing business value.

As a finance leader you may be asking "How can I provide my business leaders the information they need to make strategic decisions?" "How do I speed my monthly close?" "Is my chart of accounts future-proof?"

KPMG Powered Finance can improve access to insights and uses the 80/20 rule to jumpstart your strategy.

Rather than designing an approach from scratch, KPMG professionals work with you to validate that our pre-built models work for your organization, and refine the strategy to fit your business. Our aim is to help your team see your solution faster and implement at a lower cost.

Traditional transformation process

KPMG Powered Enterprise cloud implementation

KPMG professionals don't just analyze your business once. We iterate the KPMG Powered Finance model until it fits your business.

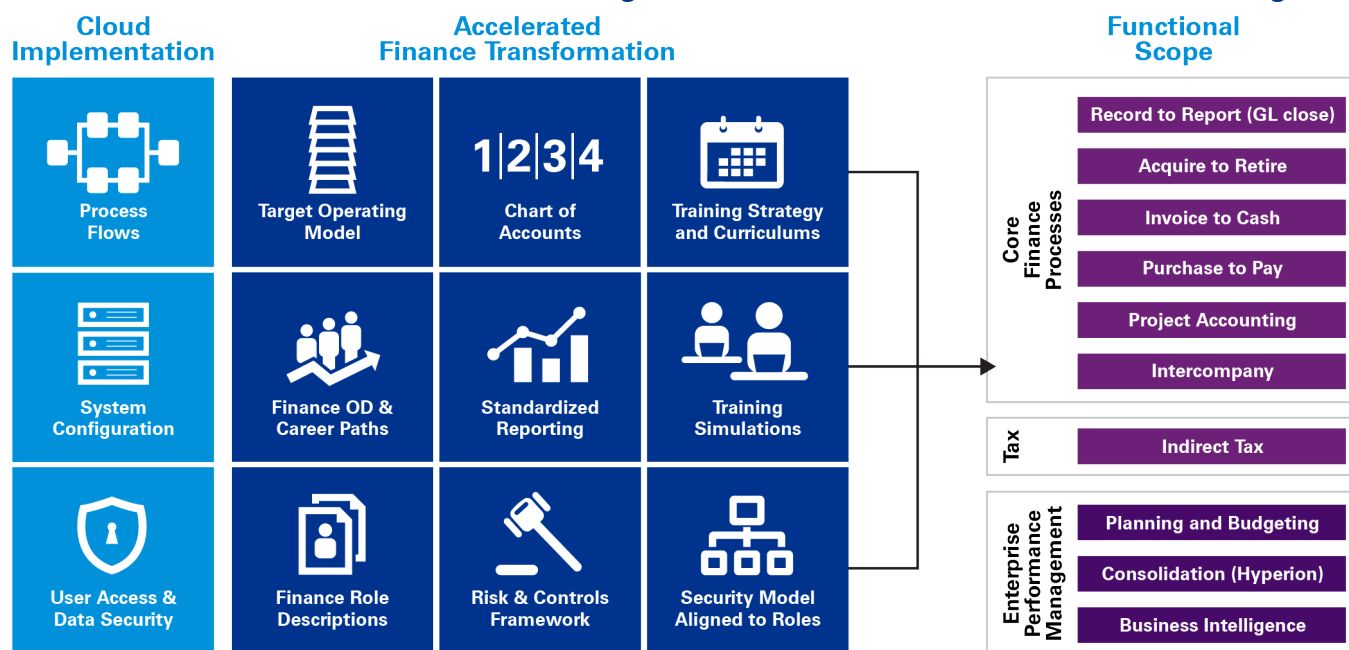

The solution is pre-configured just enough to save you time and energy in areas that may not be at the top of your priorities so that you can focus your attention in areas that are more strategic.

Find out if KPMG Powered Finance is right for you.

If you answer "yes" to any of these questions, KPMG Powered Finance could be the solution you are looking for.

1. Has your business grown resulting in multiple systems, processes and operating models?
2. Are you looking for ways to avoid costly system implementation and upgrades?
3. Is your current system so customized that it is hard to update or change?
4. Do you have an older system and are planning an upgrade?
5. Are you looking to shorten the time needed to implement a new system?
6. Are you struggling to provide information to the business when and where they need it?
7. Are you facing merger, acquisition or carve-out activity and need to mobilize financial reporting quickly?

Powered Finance is focused on delivering accelerated finance transformation through:

Reasons to use KPMG Powered Finance.

Modernize your finance organization

No longer encumbered by legacy finance applications, finance leaders can run an optimized finance function enabled by cloud technology. They are able to focus on strategic areas driving performance like M&A, product profitability and shareholder return.

Protect sensitive finance data and transactions

Underlying KPMG Powered Finance is an operational view of cloud security and controls. Finance leaders can balance growth and efficiency with the need to protect sensitive financial data and transactions.

Lower risk

KPMG's tested, built-in tools and methods are designed to reduce the risks normally associated with technology change. And our controls focus provides added support to mitigate implementation and operating risks.

Speed to value and ROI

KPMG's predesigned solutions, combined with cloud-specific delivery models, seek to provide a faster path to value and ROI.

Integrate Finance, HR and Procurement

KPMG Powered Finance maps processes that span the finance, HR and procurement functions. Areas like "record to report" and "hire to retire" are pre-configured based on leading practices and integrated to provide efficiencies across your teams.
