United States – November 2022 Visa Bulletin

The U.S. Department of State (DOS) has released the November 2022 Visa Bulletin.<sup>1</sup> U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) has also confirmed that in November 2022, it will accept employment-based Forms I-485, Applications to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, under the Dates of Filing chart of the Visa Bulletin.<sup>2</sup>

WHY THIS MATTERS

Each month, the DOS releases a Visa Bulletin indicating the availability of statutorily limited visas for prospective immigrants.<sup>3</sup> The cut-off dates reflected in the Visa Bulletin, coupled with USCIS' confirmation of which chart will apply, dictate eligibility to file a Form I-485 application in each month. In addition, the Final Action Dates chart in the applicable Visa Bulletin determines whether a pending Form I-485 or immigrant visa application may be approved.

Employment-Based Preference Category Final Action Date Cut-Offs

USCIS has announced that in November 2022, it will allow applicants to submit I-485 applications based on the Dates of Filing chart. Notably, the Dates for Filing and Final Action Dates for EB-1, EB-2, and EB-3 professionals and skilled workers will primarily remain unchanged in November. The only significant change in the Visa Bulletin is that the final action cut-off date for the People's Republic of China ("China") EB-3 will advance to December 1, 2012, from September 1, 2012.

The Final Action Dates for next month are as follows:

EB-1: All countries, including India and China, will remain current.

EB-2: All countries of chargeability except China and India will remain current. China and India will remain at June 8, 2019, and April 1, 2012, respectively.
