

KPMG Bursary

KPMG is investing in promising university students who need financial assistance. To apply for a KPMG Bursary, you have to first apply for a training contract.

Don't have a training contract with KPMG, please click here to apply.

Already have a training contract or you have now applied for a training contract and you have been provided with a Taleo reference number, please click here to apply for a KPMG Bursary.

KPMG offers 2 types of bursaries:

- 1. Pure Merit Bursary – Based purely on academic results
- 2. Merit Bursary with financial need – Based on academic results, however, should they require extensive funding besides actual study costs, you can apply for this bursary.

The minimum requirements for bursaries are as follows:

- You must be studying a SAICA recognised degree and studying full time.
- You must be completing your degree in the minimum number of years, i.e. you may not split a 1 year course over 2 years.
- You must achieve the following results in each academic year:

Level of Qualification	Minimum Requirement
Matric	4 A's excluding Life Orientation (as per bursary policy)
First Year	65% Average 70% Accounting
Second Year	65% Average 65% Accounting
Third Year	60% Average 60% Accounting
Honours/CTA	50% Average 55% Accounting

In order for KPMG to determine which bursary option you qualify for, we kindly ask that you upload the necessary documentation requested below.

Latest academic record and Proof of registration	Affidavit if parents/guardians absent in your life
Updated fee statement	Death certificate if parents/guardians deceased
	Utility bill (water and electricity, cellphone etc)
	Identity document of the student
	Matric certificate
	Latest academic record and Proof of registration
	Updated fee statement

Applying online and providing the supporting documents are prerequisites for your bursary application to be considered.

KPMG reserves the right to solely determine whether you should be awarded the Pure Merit Bursary or the Merit Bursary with Financial Needs and to determine the amount awarded under such bursary. KPMG further reserves the right to solely determine whether you should receive this award in subsequent years and if so the amount thereof, which will depend on the satisfactory progress made by you and the availability of funds to KPMG.

Please note that a Bursary Contract is subject to you entering into a learnership (training contract) with KPMG that will start once you have completed your studies at a SAICA accredited university i.e. obtaining a CTA/GDA qualification.
