Declaration of Independence, Relevant Relationships and Indemnities

The purpose of this document is to assist creditors with understanding any relevant relationships that we have with parties who are closely connected to the Company and any indemnities or upfront payments that have been provided to us. None of the relationships disclosed in this document are such that our independence is affected.

This information is provided so you have trust and confidence in our independence and, if not, you can ask for further explanation or information and can act to remove and replace us if you wish.

This declaration is made in respect of ourselves, our partners, KPMG Australia and related parties covered by the extended definition of the firm (collectively KPMG).

Martin Jones and Matthew Woods are not members of ARITA, however they acknowledge that they conduct their administrations in accordance with the ARITA Code of Professional Practice.

Independence

We, Martin Jones and Matthew Woods have assessed our independence and we are not aware of any reasons that would prevent us from accepting this appointment.

There are no other relevant relationships, including personal, business and professional relationships that should be disclosed beyond those we have disclosed in this document.

Circumstances of appointment

10.1.1 How we were referred this appointment

Mr Tim Clarke, a company shareholder, referred this appointment after first contacting Martin Jones 12 May 2025 and introducing us to Managing Director Mr Vance Moore. At that time, the Company determined that KPMG's assistance was not needed given this expectation of successfully completing a funding initiative the Company was undertaking.

Subsequently, Mr Jones and Mr Moore exchanged brief text messages regarding the progress of these initiatives, but we did not meet with the Company until 18 August 2025.

10.1.2 Did we meet with the Company before we were appointed?

Yes No

We had the following meeting with the Company:

- On 18 August 2025, Mr Jones and Kieran Chu (KPMG Associate Director assisting Mr Jones) attended a conference call with Mr Moore and Ulrich Hartig to discuss the financial position of the Company and explain the role of an external administrator and restructuring options available to it. At that time, the Company again decided it did not need KPMG's help with the initiatives that the Company was pursuing.
- On 26 September 2025, Mr Moore contacted Mr Jones to arrange a meeting with KPMG to discuss the various options available to the Company and the nature and consequences of an insolvency appointment. A meeting was arranged for 30 September 2025.

- On 30 September 2025, Mr Jones and Mr Chu met with Mr Moore and another director, Mr Neil Fitzpatrick, to discuss the company's financial position and to provide an overview of the voluntary administration process. Later that morning, the Board resolved to place the company into Voluntary Administration and appointed Martin Jones and Matthew Woods as Joint and Several Voluntary Administrators.

In our opinion, these communications do not affect our independence for the following reasons:

- KPMG's advice was limited to assessing the Company's financial position, the consequences of insolvency and restructuring options.
- Advice was given to the Company only. We did not advise the directors personally or others.
- The Courts and the applicable professional standards specifically recognise the need for practitioners to provide advice on the insolvency process and the options available and do not consider that such advice results in a conflict or an impediment to accepting the appointment.
- The nature of the advice is such that it would not be subject to review and challenge during the administration.
- The pre-appointment advice will not influence our ability to fully comply with the statutory and fiduciary obligations associated with the administration in an objective and impartial manner.

We received no remuneration for this advice.

We have provided no other information or advice to the directors prior to our appointment beyond that outlined in this DIRRI.

Declaration of relationships

Within the previous two years, have we, or KPMG, had a relationship with:

Do we, or KPMG, have any other relationships that we consider are relevant to creditors assessing our independence?

Short guide to the Personal Property Securities Act

What is Personal the Property Securities Act?

The Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (PPSA) established national legislation governing security interests in personal property. It replaced a large number of existing Commonwealth, State and Territory laws. "Personal Property" is any property that is not "Real Property" being land and buildings or fixtures.

Personal Property generally includes all property (tangible and intangible) other than land, fixtures, most water rights and some statutory licences. It includes goods or inventory, intellectual property, shares, debts and contractual rights.

There is a single national Register for parties to record their interests in personal property, called the Personal Property Securities Register (PPSR); on which all security interests in personal property can be registered. The PPSR replaced a number of State and Commonwealth registers, including the ASIC Register of Company Charges and all State Registers of Encumbered Vehicles (REVs). Any holder of a security interest in a personal property must register to ensure they have a priority to claim that property.

The PPSA has changed the way security interests are dealt with across Australia. Legal title to personal property in some situations is no longer enough to protect owners, as this legislation overturns fundamental personal property law concepts.

What is a 'Security Interest'?

A security interest is an interest in personal property, created by a transaction that secures payment or performance of an obligation.

Security interests can include:

- Interests of owners in assets leased to other parties;
- Interests of sellers of goods subject to hire purchase agreements;
- Interests of suppliers in stock delivered but subject to retention of title arrangements.

The PPSA states that a security interest exists regardless of the form of the transaction, or the identity of the person who has title to the property. The concept of a security interest under PPSA covers a broader range of interests than traditional security concepts.

If you have a security interest, it must be perfected. If you have not perfected your security interest, usually by registration on the PPSR, you may lose the ability to enforce your claim.

This document is intended to provide commentary and general information only. It is not intended to provide legal or professional advice, is not intended as a substitute for legal or professional advice, and should not be relied upon as such. Readers of this document should seek their own legal or professional advice with respect to their own circumstances

How does PPSA impact your business?

There are some significant implications for businesses arising from the PPSA, for example:

Retention of title arrangements

Some transactions that were not previously security interests are now registrable on the PPSR. For example, if you sell goods on retention of title terms, you may need to review your terms of trade and register an interest on the PPSR to protect your interest in stock delivered but not paid for.

Leases

Under the PPSA, 'title' or 'ownership' of goods can have a lower status than possession or control of goods if the owner of the goods has not registered their interest on the PPSR. You should register your security interest to 'perfect' your rights. If you do not register, then you may not be able to recover your goods or receive payment if the customer becomes insolvent. You may also lose your rights to another creditor of the customer who has 'perfected' their security interest over the property.

You should seek legal advice about the implications of the PPSA to your individual circumstances.

SecuriSearch is an Android, iOS and Windows application allowing users to search and review the PPSA quickly and easily from a mobile device. Visit our website at: <http://www.securisearch.com.au/>

Creditor Rights in Voluntary Administrations

As a creditor, you have rights to request meetings and information or take certain actions:

Right to request information

Information is communicated to creditors in a voluntary administration through reports and meetings.

In a voluntary administration, two meetings of creditors are automatically held. You should expect to receive reports and notice of these meetings:

- The first meeting is held within 8 business days of the voluntary administrator's appointment. A notice of meeting and other information for this meeting will be issued to all known creditors.
- The second, or decision, meeting is usually held within 6 weeks of the appointment, unless an extension is granted. At this meeting, creditors will get to make a decision about the company's future. Prior to this meeting the voluntary administrator will provide creditors with a notice of the meeting and a detailed report to assist in making your decision.

Important information will be communicated to creditors prior to and during these meetings. Creditors are unable to request additional meetings in a voluntary administration.

Creditors have the right to request information at any time. A voluntary administrator must provide a creditor with the requested information if their request is 'reasonable', the information is relevant to the voluntary administration, and the provision of the information would not cause the voluntary administrator to breach their duties.

A voluntary administrator must provide this information to a creditor within 5 business days of receiving the request, unless a longer period is agreed.

If, due to the nature of the information requested, the voluntary administrator requires more time to comply with the request, they can extend the period by notifying the creditor in writing.

Requests must be reasonable.

They are not reasonable if:

- complying with the request would prejudice the interests of one or more creditors or a third party
- the information requested would be privileged from production in legal proceedings
- disclosure would found an action for breach of confidence
- there is not sufficient available property to comply with the request
- the information has already been provided
- the information is required to be provided under law within 20 business days of the request
- the request is vexatious

If a request is not reasonable due to (d), (e) or (f) above, the voluntary administrator must comply if the creditor meets the cost of complying with the request.

Otherwise, a voluntary administrator must inform a creditor if their information request is not reasonable and the reason why.

Right to give directions to voluntary administrator

Creditors, by resolution, may give a voluntary administrator directions in relation to a voluntary administration. A voluntary administrator must have regard to these directions, but they are not required to comply with the directions.

If a voluntary administrator chooses not to comply with a direction given by a resolution of the creditors, they must document their reasons for not complying.

An individual creditor cannot provide a direction to a voluntary administrator.

Right to appoint a reviewing liquidator

Creditors, by resolution, may appoint a reviewing liquidator to review a voluntary administrator's remuneration or a cost or expense incurred in a voluntary administration. The review is limited to:

- remuneration approved within the six months prior to the appointment of the reviewing liquidator, and
- expenses incurred in the 12 months prior to the appointment of the reviewing liquidator.

The cost of the reviewing liquidator is paid from the assets of the voluntary administration, in priority to creditor claims.

An individual creditor can appoint a reviewing liquidator with the voluntary administrator's consent, however the cost of this reviewing liquidator must be met personally by the creditor making the appointment.

Right to replace voluntary administrator

At the first meeting, creditors have the right to remove a voluntary administrator and appoint another registered liquidator to act as voluntary administrator.

A creditor must ensure that they have a consent from another registered liquidator prior to the first meeting if they wish to seek the removal and replacement of a voluntary administrator.

Creditors also have the opportunity to replace a voluntary administrator at the second meeting of creditors:

- If creditors vote to accept a proposed deed of company arrangement, they can appoint a different registered liquidator as the deed administrator.
- If creditors vote to place the company into liquidation, they can appoint a different registered liquidator as the liquidator.

It is however usual for the voluntary administrator to act as deed administrator or liquidator. It would be expected that additional costs would be incurred by an alternate deed administrator or liquidator to gain the level of knowledge of the voluntary administrator. These additional costs of appointing another registered liquidator are paid from the assets of the deed of company arrangement or liquidation, in priority to creditor claims.

Like with the first meeting, a creditor must ensure that they have a consent from another registered liquidator prior to the second meeting if they wish to seek to appoint an alternative registered liquidator as deed administrator or liquidator.

Initial Remuneration Notice

The purpose of the Initial Remuneration Notice is to provide you with information about how the Administrators' remuneration for undertaking the administration will be set.

1 Remuneration methods

There are four basic methods that can be used to calculate the remuneration charged by an Insolvency Practitioner as follows:

1.1 Time based (hourly rates)

This is the most common method. The total fee charged is calculated by reference to the hourly or time unit rate charged for each person who carries out the work multiplied by the number of hours spent by each person on necessary work properly performed.

1.2 Fixed fee

The total fee charged is normally quoted at the commencement of the administration and is the total cost for the administration. Sometimes, a practitioner will finalise an administration for a fixed fee.

1.3 Percentage

The total fee charged is based on a percentage of a particular variable such as the gross proceeds of asset realisations.

1.4 Contingency

The insolvency practitioner's fee is contingent on achieving a particular outcome.

2 Remuneration method chosen

Given the nature of this administration, we propose that the remuneration of the Administrators be calculated using the time based method. Time based remuneration is appropriate in this administration given:

- It ensures actual time is billed at an hourly rate applicable to staff experience;
- It ensures that remuneration claimed is only for necessary work properly performed in the administration; and
- It covers tasks required to be undertaken in the administration which not only relate to asset realisations but also to reporting requirements and other tasks of an administrative or statutory nature.

3 Explanation of hourly rates

The hourly rates for our remuneration calculation are set out in the following table together with a general guide showing the qualifications and experience of staff engaged in the administration and the role they take. The hourly rates encompass the total cost of providing professional services and should not be compared to an hourly wage.

Title	Rate $/hour (excl GST)	Experience
Appointee / Partner	$990.00	Registered Liquidator. Appointee bringing his or her specialist skills to the administration or insolvency task.
Appointee / Director	$920.00	Generally, a registered liquidator or bankruptcy trustee with extensive experience in insolvency administrations. A senior member of management and, where a co-appointee, has responsibility for the conduct of the administration.

Title	Rate $/hour (excl GST)	Experience
Director	$875.00	Minimum of twelve years insolvency experience, at least five years at manager level, qualified accountant and capable of controlling all aspects of an administration.
Associate Director	$775.00	More than 7 years insolvency experience, more than 3 years as a manager, qualified accountant. Answerable to the appointee but otherwise responsible for all aspects of administration. Experienced at all levels and considered very competent. Control staff and their training.
Manager	$705.00	5-7 years, qualified accountant, with well-developed technical and commercial skills. Self-sufficiently conducts small insolvency appointments and takes a supervisory role on work streams in larger matters.
Executive	$600.00	2-5 years. Post graduate qualification (or equivalent) would normally be completed within this period. Assists planning and control of small to medium sized jobs as well as performing some of the more difficult work on larger jobs.
Analyst	$500.00	0-2 years. Completed an undergraduate degree. Post graduate qualification (or equivalent) will be commenced in this period. Assists senior staff members on aspects of the administration and completes administrative and statutory tasks independently.
Undergraduate	$200.00	Currently completing an undergraduate degree. Assists senior staff members on aspects of the administration with administrative and statutory tasks in a supervised capacity.
Vacationer	$180.00	Currently completing an undergraduate degree. Assists senior staff members on aspects of the administration with administrative and statutory tasks in a supervised capacity.
Senior Treasury	$420.00
Treasury	$350.00	Appropriately experienced and undertakes support activities.
Personal Assistant	$275.00

Notes:

- The guide to staff experience is intended only as a general guide to the qualifications and experience of staff engaged in the administration. Staff may be engaged under a classification considered appropriate for their experience.
- Time is recorded and charged in six-minute increments.
- KPMG regularly reviews its professional rates having regard to market conditions. From time to time, KPMG may seek creditor approval to adopt revised professional rates charged to this matter.

4 Estimated remuneration

We estimate fees for the administration of the Company's affairs between $250,000 to $300,000 plus applicable GST.

It should be noted that if, during the course of the administration, any unanticipated issues arise, it may be necessary to revisit the fee estimate. In the event that we become aware that our costs will exceed this amount, we will advise you accordingly.

5 Disbursements

Disbursements are divided into three types:

- Externally provided professional services. These are recovered at cost. An example is legal fees.
- Externally provided non-professional costs such as advertising, photocopying, couriers, travel, accommodation, books and records storage and search fees. These disbursements are recovered at cost.
- Internal disbursements: see table below, otherwise any other internal disbursements are recovered at cost.
