Two new partner appointments for KPMG Fiji

KPMG Fiji has announced the appointment of two new partners from 1 April 2026. Mehul Tailor and Nalin Kumar bring expertise in Audit and Assurance, and Business and Tax Advisory services. Currently based in KPMG's Suva office they will relocate to Nadi from early 2027.

KPMG Fiji Managing Partner, Sharvek Naidu, said: "With the promotion of Mehul and Nalin to the KPMG Fiji partnership we are building a strong and diverse leadership team, one well-positioned to drive innovation and support sustainable growth throughout the South Pacific. I am proud to see the partnership growing from six to eight, as we continue to meet the increasing demand for high-quality professional services in Fiji and the region."

Sharvek said that appointing Mehul and Nalin to the leadership group would also help strengthen the firm's offer to both clients and the community.

About Mehul Tailor

Mehul Tailor began his career with KPMG Fiji 18 years ago in the firm's Vocational Employment (VE) Program, before formally joining the Suva office in 2011 as a Graduate Accountant.

Sharvek said: "Mehul is KPMG Fiji's Financial Services Sector Lead and has experience reporting under US auditing standards. He has outstanding skills having worked with clients across the region, covering financial services (including central banks), energy and utilities, media and telecommunications, retail and leisure, and manufacturing industries."

Mehul has played a key role in developing KPMG Fiji's capability as a KPMG Clara Champion and Accredited Sampling professional and runs audit training programs for Fiji Audit, and IFRS technical training to clients and professionals in Fiji and across the Pacific. He is a graduate of University of the South Pacific and a member of the Fiji Institute of Chartered Accountants, and Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand.

About Nalin Kumar

Nalin Kumar is a seasoned accounting and assurance professional with over two decades of experience in public practice. He has worked with a diverse client base ranging from small and medium enterprises to major national organisations, multinational corporations, listed entities, financial institutions, and statutory bodies across Fiji and the Pacific. A three-year secondment to KPMG's Darwin office further broadened his perspective, combining strong local and regional insight with international audit practices.

Nalin also spent close to three years in Business and Tax Advisory, providing technical accounting and tax advice and delivering end-to-end compliance services including financial statement preparation, bookkeeping, executive payroll, and statutory reporting. He is a graduate of University of the South Pacific and a member of the Fiji Institute of Chartered Accountants, and CPA Australia.

Sharvek said: "Nalin brings valuable and extensive practical experience across Audit and Business & Tax Advisory, giving him a well-rounded and practical perspective when dealing with clients. He provides sound, balanced advice that considers both risk and commercial outcomes and is strongly committed to mentoring teams and driving operational improvements across a wide range of entities."
