How can I contact the Data Protection Officer?

You can contact Data Protection Officer with any question related to processing of personal data by the Controller or to exercising of your rights as Data Subject at the following email address privacy@kpmg.sk.

You can report to Data Protection Officer any data breach and any suspicion of violation of rights in the data protection area.

What is the purpose and legal basis of processing of your personal data, what is the retention period; how we collect your personal data; what is the consequence of not providing the personal data; who is the recipient of personal data?

Your personal data are processed for the purpose of including you into job applicants database of the KPMG member firms with the aim to fill the vacant positions.

Legal basis of listed data processing activities is the consent of the candidate for the vacant position.

Personal data are collected directly from you, e.g. at a meeting or from an email or other form of electronic communication means.

Retention period of your personal data to reach the above mentioned purpose is 1 year from the day of your consent. We will not store your personal data longer than it is necessary.

In case of hiring you as an employee your personal data will be added to your employee's file. You can find information about the retention period and other conditions of the personal data processing in the KPMG members firms Data Protection Notice on the processing personal data of employees.

Providing the personal data to KPMG member firms is a requirement necessary in order to be included in our job applicants database. The data subject is not obliged to provide the personal data to the Controller. The consequence of its non-disclosure is however, that the respective data subject cannot be entered into the job applicants database of KPMG members firms.

KPMG member firms engaged the following processors for the data processing for this processing purpose: Nalgoo s.r.o.; KPMG Member Firms (provision of supporting services); cut-e slovakia s.r.o..

Provided that this is necessary, KPMG member firms may provide your personal data in proportional extent to the following recipients: companies providing services to test candidates and HR assessment tools and applications, especially to KPMG International, cut-e slovakia s.r.o.

Where do we process your personal data?

We are processing your personal data for here mentioned purposes mostly in the European Union.

However, within processing operations listed in this Notice, personal data are occasionally also transferred (except processing data within EU) to a third country. Cross-border transfer takes place in connection with internal controls, the subject of which is internal risk assessment and quality assurance and compliance with professional standards in the provision of services. Appropriate safeguards for transfer of personal data to third countries are ensured in the form of standard data protection clauses according Article 46 of GDPR.

How do we process your personal data?

Processing of your personal data can be manual or automated, when your personal data is processed in our information systems or information systems of our Processors.

Your personal data are processed only by selected employees of KPMG member firms. In this relation we take care that only trained and selected employees have access to your personal data and they fulfil obligations of confidentiality in relation to all the data (personal or other) that they learned during the performance of their work.

Personal data are not subject to automated individual decision-making, including profiling.

What are your rights in the data protection area?

Under relevant data protection legislation (unless generally binding legal regulations do not stipulate otherwise), you have a right to:

- information about processing of your personal data;

- access to your personal data, including the right to obtain copy of your personal data processed by us;
- portability of the data which you have provided to us (in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format) and which we are processing based on your consent by automated means; you have the right to transmit those data to another Controller (if such transfer is technically feasible);
- rectification of your wrong, inaccurate or outdated personal data. When accuracy of your data is questionable you can request restriction of its processing until we will be able to check its accuracy;
- restriction of processing of personal data under condition that the personal data will be stored but not processed;
- erasure ('right to be forgotten') of your personal data in cases specifically allowed by data protection legislation, e.g.:
 - your personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
 - you withdraw your consent;
- if you provided a consent with processing of your personal data, you can withdraw it at any time by contacting our Data Protection Officer personally or by using any communication mean listed in this document; the consent withdrawal consent does not affect the lawfulness of the processing of personal data prior to the withdrawal;
- any time contact our Data Protection Officer by using any communication means mentioned in this document. You can also contact the Data Protection Officer in case you think that we breach your rights under data protection legislation;
- when you believe that in relation to processing of your personal data, your rights were breached or that you were directly affected by such breach, you have a right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority (Úrad na ochranu osobných údajov Slovenskej republiky, address Hraničná 4826/12, 820 07 Bratislava – Ružinov, tel. number: +421 /2/ 3231 3214; mail: statny.dozor@pdp.gov.sk, <https://dataprotection.gov.sk/uouu/>) or to a relevant court.

What is it about your right to object?

You have right to object any time to the processing of your personal data, which is performed on the basis of our legitimate interest. Objection could be lodged to our Data Protection Officer personally or by using any of our listed contacts.

When we consider that our legitimate interest prevails over your interest or rights and freedoms, we can continue to process your personal data. When your objection will be appropriate, we stop processing your personal data for this purpose.
