How can I contact Data Protection Officer?

You can contact Data Protection Officer with any question related to processing of personal data by the Controller or to exercising of your rights as Data Subject at the following email address privacy@kpmg.sk. You can report to Data Protection Officer any data breach and any suspicion of violation of rights in the data protection area.

What is the purpose and legal basis of processing of your personal data, what is the retention period; how we collect your personal data; what is the consequence in case of not providing the personal data; who is the recipient of personal data?

The information listed below is broken down by the categories of persons concerned, or by the type of the processing activity.

(1) Statutory obligations

We are processing your personal data for the purpose of fulfilment of statutory obligations of KPMG member firms listed below (e.g. listing of persons authorized to act on behalf of KPMG member firms in the relevant public and non-public registers, notification of changes to the relevant registries, registration of relevant part of executive body as ultimate beneficial owners of KPMG member firms).

The legal basis of these processing activities is the fulfilment of statutory obligations arising from the relevant legislation, mainly under Act No. 530/2003 Coll. on Commercial Register and on amendments to certain Acts as amended, Act No. 315/2016 Coll. on Public Sector Partners and on amendments to certain Acts as amended, Act No. 343/2015 Coll. Public Procurement and on amendments to certain Acts as amended and Act No. 297/2008 Coll. On Protection Against Legalization of Income From Criminal Activities And Protection Against Terrorist Financing as amended.

We are collecting personal data directly from you, e.g. personally, through email or other means of electronic communication.

The retention period of your personal data is to achieve this purpose is 10 years after the termination of your function, in case of founding documents of a company, the retention period is for the duration of the company. Your personal data will not be stored longer than it is necessary.

In case you have any employment relationship with any of KPMG member firms, your personal data will be stored also in an employee personal file. You can find the retention period and other additional information on processing of personal data in this case in Data Protection Notice addressed to employees.

Provision of personal data to KPMG member firms is a statutory requirement and the Data Subject is obliged to disclose the personal data to the Controller. The possible consequence of their non-disclosure is the breach of statutory obligations by KPMG member firms (e.g. inability of listing Data Subject as member of executive body of KPMG member firms).

Provided that this is necessary to protect or exercise rights of the controller, KPMG member firms may provide your personal data in proportional extent to the following recipients:

- competent Register Court;
- Office for Public Procurement;
- register of the public sector partners
- competent Public authorities (e.g. Tax office).

(2) Internal quality and risk management

- We also process your personal data for the purpose of performing internal controls, the subject of which is internal risk assessment and quality assurance and compliance with professional standards in the provision of services;
- More detailed information on this processing activity you can be found on privacy page (third parties).

Where do we process your personal data?

We are processing your personal data only in EU. We do not transfer any personal data to third countries.

How do we process your personal data?

Processing of your personal data can be manual or automated, when your personal data is processed in our information systems or information systems of our Processors.

Your personal data are processed only by selected employees of KPMG member firms. In this relation we take care that only trained and selected employees have access to your personal data and they fulfil obligations of confidentiality in relation to all the data (personal or other) that they learned during the performance of their work.

Personal data are not subject to automated individual decision-making, including profiling.

What are your rights in the data protection area?

Under relevant data protection legislation (unless generally binding legal regulations do not stipulate otherwise), you have a right to:

- information about processing of your personal data;
- access to your personal data, including the right to obtain copy of your personal data processed by us;
- portability of the data which you have provided to us (in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format) and which we are processing based on your consent by automated means; you have the right to transmit those data to another Controller (if such transfer is technically feasible);
- rectification of your wrong, inaccurate or outdated personal data. When accuracy of your data is questionable you can request restriction of its processing until we will be able to check its accuracy;
- restriction of processing of personal data under condition that the personal data will be stored but not processed;
- erasure ('right to be forgotten') of your personal data in cases specifically allowed by data protection legislation, e.g.:
 - your personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- any time contact our Data Protection Officer by using any communication means mentioned in this document. You can also contact the Data Protection Officer in case you think that we breach your rights under data protection legislation;
- when you believe that in relation to processing of your personal data, your rights were breached or that you were directly affected by such breach, you have a right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority (Úrad na ochranu osobných údajov Slovenskej republiky, adresa Hraničná 4826/12, 820 07 Bratislava – Ružinov, tel. number: +421 /2/ 3231 3214; mail: statny.dozor@pdp.gov.sk, <https://dataprotection.gov.sk/uouu/>) or to a relevant court.

What is it about your right to object?

You have right to object any time to the processing of your personal data, which is performed on the basis of our legitimate interest. Objection could be lodged to our Data Protection Officer personally or by using any of our listed contacts.

When we consider that our legitimate interest prevails over your interest or rights and freedoms, we can continue to process your personal data. When your objection will be appropriate, we stop processing your personal data for this purpose.

How often do we update this document?

This information is periodically reviewed and could be changed from time to time (in order to comply with new legislation and to reflect our current privacy practices). Updated versions will be available on our web site.
