

KPMG Latin America member firm legal service offerings

KPMG Americas Tax & Legal*
Regional expertise. Locally executed.

Understanding the value of high-quality legal counsel in complicated times is of the utmost importance. That is why KPMG member firms in Latin America (LATAM) focus on bringing together multi-disciplinary legal teams with deep local and international experience to help tackle some of the most challenging problems for their clients.

The KPMG LATAM legal services network is comprised of the legal practices of thirteen KPMG LATAM member firms, with over forty partners and directors, supported by more than two-hundred full time attorneys. KPMG LATAM member firm lawyers work in integrated teams alongside their colleagues in Tax and Advisory to bring together the components needed to help create wide-ranging digital solutions to business challenges.

When you engage a KPMG member firm that offers legal services, you get local country insight and experience, and deep legal expertise and strategic intelligence tools delivered as part of a dedicated, connected global legal network, enabling KPMG member firms to bring clients some of the most relevant insights tailored to meet their unique requirements. They collaborate with clients to structure and implement business or group change, enabling organizations to stay relevant and competitive.

+ The two-hundred full-time attorneys does not include lawyers/attorneys that are part of the core Tax practice.
