KPMG Southern Africa

South Africa Immigration services

Changes in the Immigration landscape is inevitable and compliance with immigration laws has become a cornerstone for employers and their expatriates. Government authorities are applying stringent immigration laws and policies, making the immigration process more challenging and complex for employers to manage their international workforce.

How we support your business family

The KPMG South African Immigration team is at your service to address and help resolve any concerns you may have.

Our team has been providing immigration consulting and compliance services to our clients for over 20 years supported by our KPMG Global Immigration network available in more than 150 countries.

The team consists of specialized professionals with in-depth knowledge and experience in the immigration and global mobility sphere. We serve various clients across all industries including, banking, construction, telecommunications, aviation, information technology, textiles and automobile industries.
